This manuscript consists of the following:

II Akha Death Rituals First Draft. Dr. Inge Lill Hansson.

It consists of the following parts:

1. Initial recitation: pg. 1-7

2. The phima goes out of his door 8-35.

3. About the whole nature preparing to conceive and the woman giving birth to a daughter. 36-40.

4. Boys and girls growing up and thinking about getting married 41-45.

5. A boy going to buy salt at a Shan market (or ------------------) far away, asking his girlfriend not to marry somebody else while he is away pg. 6-56

6. About a boy typing to make up his mind about getting married. He first sees a Wa-girl. 57-60.

7. The boy finally finds a girl and eles with her; They than change their mind and return home to arrange for the wedding. 61-67.

8. A good day for the marriage is choosen and the ceremonies performed. The couple settle down and start to raise a family. (seems very short version) 88-98.

9. The woman is getting old. She does not want so and asks the phima to find medicine against pain and death. All nature is described as getting old with her. 99-115.
10. About the migrations of the Akha from their homeland to their present location (Tibet - Sipsongpanna - to where this village is now) 116-121.

11. The phima arrives at the abode of the ancestors, preparing both the ancestors and the dead for their meeting. Contains also many comment on Akhatriditions. 122-151.

12. Here a description of the funeral ceremonies starts: A member of the family goes to the market to buy a buffalo. It has to be perfect. He brings it home, binds it in a good place, to wait during say and night rituals. 152-101.

13. During three nights recitations, the phima drums with a forked bamboo section; to let ancestors hear his word; ask the dead to leave her good luck behind, and only take things, which have been given to her. 162-167.

15. (continuation of nr. 1 and 12 ) giving the rubrics for the rituals to be done for the dead. 176-186

16. This section is recited outside the house in early morning, at the day of the buffalo-sacrifice. The phima (them), the (appointed) phima (who will ritually kill the buffalo) and a helper (usually a phiza) are squatting somewhat away from the buffalo for concentration. The phima asks ancestors and animals for strength and precision when killing: The buffalo is supposed to die instantly; without uttering a sound; and without bloodshed. pg.187-189

17. Last recitation before the buffalo is stabbed. While reciting, the phima (Tome), the phima (for the occasion) and the phize walk slowly towards the buffalo; They rubb uncooked rice onto its hear-area many times (to see exactly where it is). The phima calls up his phima -teacher- gencalogy by starting to recite the lineage of each one, enumerating it down to the phima (teacher). 190-194

18. Recitation after the buffalo has been killed. thoma and phima (who killed) sit at some distance from the buffalo; back to it. Spear down; like in concentration. They recite for the buffalo. (not yet clear). 195-198.
19. Describes buffalo-ritual; It ensures the dead that the phima will take care of her on way to the ancestors.

20. Here the Akha migration-route, mentioning the rivers, people of this village have passed. Are mentioned, starting from Maby (the village of Dr. Inga Lill's teachers, near the Nikhom, Mae Chan); It ends with the ancestor-village (opposite of nr. 10).

21. The phima chases the dead out of the village gone along with his/her to than-pan, beyond which place the living cannot go. Its the borderline between the visible and the invisible word. Here the dead is judged whether he/she and all the things he/she brings are good and justified; and if there still is any debt to pay. The priest describes the (three) roads; which road to choose (the middle read); And about meeting his/her ancestors and how to answer their questions;

22. This is the last recitation. Immed--------- after this the dead is carried away to be buried at the cemetery West of the village (in the forest). Many sentences yet unclear; The phima's soul (and that of the family) are called back, so that it would not go (emotionally), with the dead. Finally the phima/reciter points out, that the words are not his own but those of his ancestor-reciter, who taught him.

AKHA DEATH RITUALS

1. The first recitation when death has occurred. Recited outside the house after the corpse has been shrouded.

Having died on earth being bent the die, other are let to live, the door where the moon comes out the phi-ma recites a lifetime the phi-ma must think long ahead, long like the river floating upstream, think clearly like the sun the moon must be clever like the clear water upstream, like the clear sun and moon let old people live in the village being clever the clear water flowing in the bending river you are not a young one going to the dancing place you are an adult who knows a lot, like a chinese you are not small, blunt knife but a sharp knife with a big handle if you don't go close to the Chinese you won't have knowledge you are close to the Chinese if you don't go close to the people you won't have full knowledge you are close to them and know it all the young ones have many words you grown-up woman listens only to the good parts if on your road there is a lot of dog shit and pig shit if the dog shit is no good, cover it with your feet if the pig shit is no good break off fern and cover it if the chicken shit is no good cover it with ashes when you were on earth you had a good heart and never ------------ people in spirits land, don’t be worried on earth you were clever like clear water in spirits land, don’t be angry on earth your heart was good like an orchid in the underworld, don’t change into a dumb woman woman, if the thing you take along are not straight, make straight man, if the food is no good, mate it good the thing which are not straight, make them straight if the bamboo section is no good, out it so it become good in the middle of heaven the sun moon shine don’t shine from the edge the middle of heaven is good, shine in the middle in the middle of earth walking with a staff don’t walk with a staff at the edge of the earth the middle of the earth id good, walk just at the middle the small tiger roams all over the country don’t roam at the edge of the world the middle of the world is good, roam just at the middle the first staff you walk with, let it be firm when the sun first shine, let it to be bright walking with a staff, let the staff go first before when you were alive I didn’t call you by name now when you have died I must call your name while alive, your name wasn’t called now when you have died I must call you by name ------------------------------- chicken the ceremonies are not finished yet then we’ll kill a pig for you while cutting coffin

the ceremonies won’t be finished yet then the ------------ will be all done let your good luck come back your good luck coming back close to your eldest son coming back close to your middle son dead woman, let your luck turn back towards us let your good luck turn back to us letting your luck befall your children at first we are worried at first we fell distressed, later let us be comfortable

let our worry later disappear at first we are nothing but cold now we feel cold, later let us be warm at first our tears are overflowing, later let us laugh a big at first our mouths are pouting, later let our laugh roar like thunder in your rich house sweep the upper part but let your luck remain let your luck turn towards us let your good luck turn towards us let your luck give long life to your children one mother pig you take with you
outside where we have made the red earth smooth later I will recite there by your head, scrap iron on a piece of cloth by your feet a spindle don’t let the good sell burst don’t let the tree for the coffin come to life again

the deceased phi-ma’s will all be called upon
I’ll make the ------ for the dead your -------- hen to be given to the ancestors
them I finish the -------------- sugarcane is put on the tray there are good and bad deaths bananas are placed on the tray
nine sections of sugarcane
while cowries
the ---------- leaves
nine shoots from the ---------- tree giving birth to a child, ten ceremonies are made nine shoot from the ---------- tree
the division between good and bad deaths is finished
I’ll do the -------------- with a pig your oldest son, your second son, your -------- son let your luck return here let your luck go back to your children let your luck befall on your children I’ll make the -------------- for you to let your luck remain with your children one male pig

at the outskirt of the village we’ll cut the bamboo section to boat the rhythm with we'll cut the bamboo section for you if the bamboo section is not good we can't use it I've finished cutting the bamboo section for the dead and the one who was in pain
I'm not cutting the bamboo section for the owner of animals but I cut it for you who have died if a stone bursts in the hot season it doesn't matter I won't let the bamboo section burst if bamboo burst in the hot season it doesn't matter I won't let your bamboo section burst in the jungle bamboo squeaks I won't let your bamboo section squeak in the jungle the bamboo creaks I won't let your bamboo section creaks
then the ceremony to show you the way into the coffin the phi-ma swigs one rooster for the head part of the coffin at the foot part, let it flap its wings and crow for the foot part one hen let the hen flap its wings and cackle at the head part at the head part, one cowrie let the cowrie make the coffin clean at the foot part a cowrie I'll clean the head part with it at the middle the coffin is not good, clean it with water in a bowl let the upper and lower parts of the coffin fit wall together you are not the only one who goes into the coffin you are not an alone woman gone into the coffin the ruler of heaven has died and will go with you into the coffin the ruler of earth has died and will go with you into coffin the one who raised horses and tied to his feet will go into the coffin the one who rides on horses will go into the coffin the one who ------ from a silver bowl, the one who drinks from a golden bowl will go into the coffin when going into the coffin, don't be worried when going into the coffin don't be distressed it is not a bad coffin but a good coffin you won't be hungry in the coffin but will eat your fill it is not a bad coffin, everything you need is there it is not a cold coffin but a warm coffin your older brother up slope will go into the coffin your younger brother down slope will go into the coffin your whole family will go into the coffin I the phi-ma will go into the coffin you won't go into the coffin alone you are not an alone woman who goes into the coffin the coffin will be closed - she is lying in the coffin Oh, you are the only one who went into the coffin you are the only woman who went into coffin ---------------------but be won't go into the coffin the ruler of earth has died but won't go into the coffin the one who raised horses and tied them to his feet, the one who rode on horses won't go into coffin your elder brother upslope won't go into it, your younger brother downslope won't go into it your family members won't go into the coffin I the phi-ma won't go into the coffin the daughter who hasn't got married yet won't go into the coffin the son who hasn't brought a daughter-in-law yet won't go into the coffin the black crow won't go into the coffin until it is turned white the male buffalo won't go into the coffin until it has become pregnant the treading pole and pestle won't go into the coffin until they have come to life you alone has gone into the coffin you alone mother has gone into the coffin

them the ceremony to ensure that the phi-ma don't have to relieve himself while reciting make the ceremony with one hen to ensure that the phi-ma won't have to defecate
then the three nights of recitations
the water, tea, and ginger is put into the bamboo section upslope the dogs are barking

2. ------------------ upslope the dogs are barking.

in the middle the pig are running downslopes the cows with short hair are bellowing a group of people dressed in red and blank coming to the village where is the group going a group from downstream wearing red, a group from upstream wearing black down has not yet come the Shans from upstream black wait by the grass field the cock has not yet crowed outside the gate in the shadow below the trees the Shans are not valuable, our rice is valuunable the ------ people are not valuable, our animals are valuable it is not a group from downstream wearing red it is not a group from doupstream wearing black with strawhats shining like stars, are they young man who have come to court the girls they are not young men who have come to court the girls it is a group who has to ask for the village leader if that is so go to wait where the lender lives the leader looks as if he will come out of his door at the leader's house, he is not in as hurry he doesn't come out of his door it is not a group who has come to ask for the village leader drawing his decorated spear, three fathoms long carrying his good knife, three handsbreadths long, in a rope have they come to ask for the war leader it that is so go to wait----------------------------- the war leader looks as if he will come out of his door at the war leader's house, he is not in a hurry to go war the good war leader doesn't get out of his door the good war leader doesn't go beyond the village gate it is not a group who has come to ask the leader to go to war at the corner of the house three pieces of charcoal on a tray lifting up a bowl with golden rice have they come to ask the blacksmith to forge iron if that is so go to wait where the blacksmith lives the blacksmith looks as if he will come out of his door at the blacksmith's place, he is not in a hurry to go from the good blacksmith doesn't go out of his door the good blacksmith doesn't go out beyond the village gate it is not a group who has come to ask the blacksmith to forge iron in the corner a bottle with good liquor in the corner a basked with dried meat is it a group who has come to ask the priest to spread leaves if that is so go to wait where the priest lives outside his house under the shadow of the trees calling on him once, he doesn't answer calling on him twice, he doesn't answer calling on him three times, the priest answers not calling once only, he answers calling on him three times, if he doesn't answer other think that he is not able, but the priest himself thinks that he is able other think that the priest's house is not big the priest himself ........................................ the soil in ......... is good and abundant other's house are not big the priest thinks that his own house is big the fields parents have made are big other's fields are not big the priest thinks that his fields are big it is a group who asks the priest to spread out leaves Oh, mother of the house, they call on the priest's mother she goes out on the porch where pigs root around below shields her eyes with her hand for the sunshine on the outer porch she looks between her three fingers judging the people from downstream, judging the people from upstream it is a group who asks the priest to spread leaves at night I dreamt, in daytime I didn't think about death at night I dreamt but I didn't see death ÷ at daytime feeling pity, mourning has come going to sleep at night I look after the grandchildren at daytime talking care of the children at night taking care of the bedding it looks like dawn, but the cock hasn't crowed it looks like mourning, but it didn't look like pain it looks like grubs eating the roots, but the crown didn't look dead it look like water overflowing, but the water isn't muddy when dawn has come the crow mother shrieks it look as if cases are being judged by the village leader if the village leader has a case in his village if it is not a case that can t be judged the village leader will give his verdict by mouth not mending holes in clothes if mending clothes mending clothes, making it look well on both sides the old woman well with needle and thread it is not a matter of judging cases in the village at dawn the crow mother shrieked loudly it is not that the village leader is going to judge cases at midday the bird called out it look as if an animal reject his been born in the village if a bad animal is born in the village other can eat it, the young ones life their chopsticks those who can life their chopsticks gather around like fish it is not a cases of an animal reject it is announced that an old woman has died the young ones went hunting in the mountains a bird called out, a bird reported it looks as if is reports that it has seen somebody it does not report that it has seen somebody it tells that an old woman has died and has been in pain going to our own fielas carrying our shoulder bags carrying a basket on a yoke to pluck our vegetable the wild banana buds in the jungle are bitter a mother bird calls out it looks as I it report that it has seen somebody

with three handbreadths long like a toy in his hands, a boy digging the filed bending his back while weeding his own rice while holding a knife three handbreadth long while standing up looking at his own rice stems by the bamboo at the bottom of the field a bulbul mother calls out it looks as if it tells a child has been born in the village it does not tell about a child being born the village it tells about an old woman s death and pain three persons calling on the village leader three person calling on the priest you have never seen the face of our village leader never head his voice you have seen the village leader s body how do you know that there is a village leader here who has told you that he is here it is not the case that somebody has told us that three is a village leader here we know that inside the fence he is judging cases his word by mouth are as strong as the voice of the bird when the village leader says one word the crowd is silent we didn’t know about his living here but we know about his judging cases oh, village leader you haven’t seen our war leader’s face you haven’t heard his vice you haven’t seen our lender’s body how do you know that is a war leader here who has told that he is here nobody has told us that a war leader lives here he was fighting on two sides his palm was out across, red blood flowing out his fingers were out across, dark blood burst out the war leader fights once the enemy gets silent we didn’t know about his living here but we know about his fighting oh, war leader you haven’t seen our blacksmith’s face you haven’t heard his voice you haven’t seen our blacksmith’s body how do you know there is a blacksmith here who has told you that he is here nobody has told us that a blacksmith here outside there is a clay pit looking like a termite hill outside there is a smithy looking like a crow’s nest the blacksmith pounds once and the iron beds, the iron gives in we didn’t know about his living here but we know about his forging iron oh, blacksmith you haven’t seen our priest’s face

you haven’t seen our priest’s body how do you know there is a priest here who has told you that he is here nobody has told us that a priest lives here at the lower side of the house close to a dead’s coffin inbetween night and day he beats with a bamboo section for the spirit the spirit of the dead is recited up spirits are as many ants spirits disappear like flowers when the priest recites the spirit of the dead moves, all the spirits disappear the priest recites once and the spirits listen and flee we didn’t know about his living here but we know about his reciting oh, priest the barking dogs with white necks the red cock crows, its voice is good the priest recites wronging heaven, there is no day when we don’t wrong heaven no morning when we don’t wrong heaven wronging heaven but not being judged by heaven wronging heaven many times the white clouds judge us not only wronging heaven but wronging earth there is no day without wronging earth no morning without wronging earth wronging earth but not being scolded by earth ÷ wronging earth many times the lord of earth will punish us not only wronging earth but wronging the country wronging the country but not being judged by the country ÷ wronging the country many times the lord of the country will judge us not only wronging the country but wronging the village there is no day without wronging the village no morning without wronging the village wronging the village but not being judged by the village wronging the village many times the village leader will pass the judgement not only wronging the village but wronging the clan there is not day without wronging the clan no morning without wronging the clan wronging one's clan, another clans doesn't want judge ÷ wronging one's clan many times the head of the clan judges not only wronging one's clan but wronging one's household there is no day without wronging one's household no morning without wronging one's household wronging one's household another household won't judge ÷ wronging one's household several times the present will judge sun and moon don't hurry at times of death on one's household one must hurry heaven has no worries at time of death in one's household there are worries when we have mourning in our household we can't manage it ourselves when we are in a hurry in our household we can't take care of it ourselves when there is mourning in one's household there who know case to help when ceremonies are to be made in one's household these who know are called upon the ------ grub with thin wings nine pieces of cloth used at one time the wasp with thin waist nine portions of beeswax used at one time where people are alive hurry on with the ceremonies make the place wide where people live with the ceremonies by the roots of the tree leaves have fallen inspiles downslope where leaves have fallen sweep them away with hands with feet downslopes let the trees grow well if moving the stones where water flows pushing away the stones the water flows widely I didn't see the eagle which grabbed the chicken I didn't see it perching on a branch high up in a tree upstream but I know that a big chicken has disappeared from below the Shan house I didn't see the tiger dragging the buffalo away I didn't see it roaming at the outskirts of the Shan house but I knew that a ----------- buffalo with long horns has disappeared from the front of the Shan house I didn't see the wolf dragging the pig away I didn't see it roaming beside the Shan fence but I know that an old sow has disappeared from below the Shan house I haven't seen the hold from where the wind comes if I were to see the wind hole I would cover it with big stones to stop the wind but I haven't seen the wind hole when a tree falls across the path I can't out off the leaves can't out off the branches I didn't see the spirit coming up to the door I didn't see the spirit coming upright through the door if I had seen the spirit coming up I would have drawn my knife and chased him cutting him if I had seen the spirit walking upright through the door I would have drawn my spear and chased him piercing him but I didn't see him coming up to the door a dead in the house hinders the living I didn't see the spirit coming upright though the door dead animals fill up between the house posts when somebody has died you can't dry his ----------- on the rack over the fire I thought that a dead person could be dried over the fire rack but that would look as if we no ancestors not wanting dead animals to go rotten between the house posts I thought that dead animals want rottening between the house posts it looks as if wildcat with ----------- coloured eyes has gone rotten between the house posts if not for woman wouldn't be pound while if not for mother rice wouldn't be steamed if not for father food wouldn't be tasty if not for the village leader ceremonies wouldn't performed if not for the priest leaves wouldn't be spread the tray not prepared one village leader can't perform ten ceremonies ten village leader together perform one ceremony one war leader doesn't fight ten wars ten war leader fight ten wars one blacksmith doesn't forge ten pieces of iron one piece of iron by ten blacksmiths one priest doesn't recite ten times ten priest recite once fathers with trousers of five breadths of cloth wronging thirty ceremonies fathers with shirts of ten breadths of cloth wronging thirty spirits nothing is faster than feet when getting thorn into your feet you can't take the thorn out yourself a woman with three needles stuck into her sleeve she take the thorn out of my feet nothing is more clear-sighted than eyes when the wind blows dirt into my eye I can't take the dirt out myself a woman with three pieces of thread on her jacket she can take the dirt out of my eye the pickled meat of the ------------ not to be ten taking it bat not eating it beautiful clothes which the village leader should not wear oven though they would fit his body well he doesn't wear them the village leader is at the middle of the rain the priest at the middle of sunshine when rain was created did its son die -------------------- the sun of the rain died xion sun was creates did its son die when somebody's son dies are six words spoken should a horse be offered, should he be wrapped in a good blanket should a buffalo be, should he be wrapped in a rug a stallion is not offered, he is not wrapped in a blanket a blank buffalo is not offered, he is not wrapped into a rug I must weed the field and get the old growths away I thought I wouldn't have to wood

I am not worried if one stalk dies I am worried about all the planted rice I have to take care of the animals I raise I thought I wouldn't have to take care of them if one animal dies I'm not afraid I'm afraid that later on the other animals I've raised will die when somebody dies we arrange it all well I thought we didn't had to arrange it well when somebody dies I'm not afraid when one person dies but afraid that later somebody else will die when clothes get torn I must send them I thought I wouldn't have to repair torn clothes I'm worried when only one piece of clothes get torn but I'm afraid that later on more clothes will get torn on a rabbit day the priest can't recite but e can go to the fields on an ant day the priest can't go beyond the village gate to recite but he can go to the fields the village leader will go out of his door but he hasn't get his payment yet what is the village leader's fee what is his price
first he asks for lumps of gold and silver given by hand then he asks for a horse and a buffalo at last he asks for silver and gold I the money you asks for should be enough for your grandparents' life not enough to feed your father during his life not enough for your children and your grandchildren your grandchildren are no good, they make traps your grandchildren are no good, they set traps and look after them your paddy house won’t be full your children won’t stay alive your animals won’t fill nine pens there is not and liquor every day when there is meat I’ll give you first when getting hungry I’ll give you to eat first when something good comes up you get it first when money comes up, guests coming to the big house a rich man in the village raising children on a level spot on the mountain let the village leader live in a village with five house let the rooster in a village with ten house let one pig grunt I’ll give the fee to the village leader the war leader will go out of his door but he hasn’t got his payment yet what is the war leader’s fee
first he asks for lumps of silver and gold given by hand
the money you ask for should be enough for you grandparents’ life
not enough for your children and grandchildren
your children are no good, they set traps and look after them your paddy house won’t full

first giving you liquor and ten then a pig that has been killed with a slingshot screaming at last killing a buffalo with spear for you to eat giving hundred spears one hundred one spears the end of the knife’s handle like a frog’s jar drawing the knife, it shines like stare your rice will fill mine paddy houses your children will fill mime places your animals will fill mine pens I’ll give the fee to the war leader the blacksmith will go out his door
what is the blacksmith’s fee
first he asks for silver and gold given by hand
your grandchildren are no good, they asks traps

I'll give you a big lump of silver tie a purse on your waist (Blacksmith) When helping the blacksmith, don't let youngsters help when pouring up rice the blacksmith, don't pour up husks doing your duty work in the blacksmith's fields, if sending your youngsters to work the children you give birth to won't thrive pouring up rice for the blacksmith, if pouring up husks the sticky rice you plant won't core to care doing your duty work for the blacksmith, adults should work adults work for the blacksmith not with old rice sceeper but carry big rice basket not with a small basket I'll market on your tally stick (isiters :) Your rice will fill nine paddy houses your children will fill nine places your animals will fill nine pens I'll give the fee to the blacksmith the priest will go out his door but hasn't got his payment yet what is the priest's fee
the money you for should be enough for your grandparents' life

your nine paddy houses won't be full
it is not every day that ----------------------there is no reciting with sacrificing a dog or a pig when reciting with a dog cutting off its head good thigh so they hang together (for priest to when reciting with pig inside ceremonies, four ribs to the priest outside ceremonies five ribs butterfly, don’t come drink water there the village leader goes out of door the village leader goes to another village while he has not yet finished judging cases while he has not yet returned home his purse should remain empty (don’t look for money while father is away) don’t ask the guests who come for money (don’t sell anything) keep the thing in the basket the war leader goes to another village while he has not yet finished the war

the mother lets her loom remain empty cloth is not woven keep it in the basket the blacksmith goes to another village while has not yet finished forging

wife, don’t comb your dishevelled hair in the evening the priest goes to another village to the spirits while he has not yet finished reciting to the spirits

wife, don’t comb your dishevelled hair in daytime don’t climb the stairs to the houses of your elder relatives upslope don’t climb the stairs to the houses of your younger relatives downslope when shan guests or --------- guests come, let the dog be fierce oh, mother of the house boiling tea, don’t give guests to drink boiling vegetables, don’t give guests to eat the mother stays at home watching the mother guards the eggs in the roosting basket village leader goes out of his door in daytime the priest goes out there are no chicken bones yet (for divinion) are there no good chicken bones, even like a bamboo section? aren’t there three pair of chicken ones? there are chicken bones what kind of chicken bones are there? there are bones from a white chicken a white chicken can be eaten only a black chicken is used for the -------------- ceremony a yellow chicken for the -------------- ceremony a fuzzy chicken for the -------------- poq ceremony the bones asks about going were three times not good ÷ if going to the mountains we get samber deer if going to the high mountains we would get barking deer (the bones said) but for going recite at death and pain the bones are not good where can I ask for another chicken bone? asking for bones, being alert ?? for chicken bones, think well being purified ??

(priest:)ÔIf I am not alert and think well I can’t recite if I am clever, alert, well-thinking, I can recite for ten spriest ÷ with my two legs I climb to one thousand places in daytime I think clearly like the sun shining

I, the priest, go out of my door I go out wearing a strawhat wearing a clean strawhat going out wearing a strawhat a clean strawhat, -------- there are ten dirty strawhats not wearing ten dirty strawhat but my father’s clean one going wearing the strawhat to kill with my hands, (the sacrificial animals) dies coming back having killed with my hand I am covered by the strawhat (against sunshine and rain) it is not the edge of the that covers but the middle part that covers me with a spear from the ancestors I set out ten dirty spears not carrying ten dirty but my father’s clean one going carrying the spear to kill with my hands, all the meat will be eaten up coming back having killed with my hands I am covered by the spear it is not the edge of the spear that covers

the blacksmith goes put of his door with his ritual iron rod ten dirty rods not using ten dirty rods but his father’s clean one going carrying the rod to kill with his hands, all the meat will be eaten up coming back having killed with his hands he is covered by the iron rod it is not the edge of the red that covers but the middle part covers him the priest goes out of his door with clean knife in his shoulder bag there are ten dirty knives he doesn’t carry ten dirty knives but his father’s clean one going carrying his knife to kill with his hands coming back having killed with his hands he is covered by his knife it is not the edge of the knife that covers but the middle part that covers him

( priest :) I go out of my door when I go out look like a crane ( wearing god clothed ) when I go out change into a spriest when going, looking like a tiger and a leopard if the tiger and the leopard don’t reach their prey, they won’t roam at the edge of the world if the tiger and the leopard don’t reach their prey, they roam close to the village the rich man’s buffalo is not kept in the pen the man’s buffalo is downslope at even spot if the tiger doesn’t reach it it is won’t drag it away when it reach it, the fat buffalo mother is not eaten at an uneven place but on the even grassland it is eaten I look like an eagle if the eagle can’t reach its prey it won’t zoom over the abyss if the eagle can’t reach its prey it it zoom over the village deep down if the rich man’s chicken cage is not covered which the rich man’s chicken stay on the ground looking for husks if the eagle can’t reach it, it won’t be grasped reaching it, a big hen it doesn’t eat it at an uneven spot between the trees but eats it on an even branch of a big tree

I’ll go to another village wearing beautiful clothes not dressing up for people for on earth but dressing up for the spirits in the underworld eating three meals, eating fast ( between ceremonies ) not eating fast with people on earth but eating fast with spirits in the underworld the priest stay for three but doesn’t carry a blanket I’ll sit on a piece of silk going for three days but not carrying rice to eat I’m going to sit where rice is as plenty am grubs”

I’ll go out of my door when I go of my door I’ll give meat to my mother ( when coming back ) I’ll give father liquor to drink my Shan friends on the lowland, I'll call on them for meal the people on the lowland, I'll give them mast to make friends with them so that they won't change their hearts a basket with rice to be used in my paddy house for food a chicken in a basket to be raised to become big below my house, a mother of a herd pleasing my wife with meat when going I am quick like a swallow coming back must like a crossbow arrow Í don't go, his mother says, I don't go she holds on to sleeve, to the edge of has jacket Í don't go three hands-breadths of his jacket is torn Í on the read I take a needle and mend mend it Í don't go, his father says, I don't go he holds on to his trousers' legs, to the edge of his trousers
three hands-breaths his trousers' legs are torn Í on the read I bring a needle along and mend it walking on a road like silk and gold thread going without company, like spirit thread (following thread) going on my own road like spirit my own thread coming back on the same read going out opening my door going, opening my door, not asking somebody else to open it Í open the door myself coming back I'll close it myself Í go out upslope

twelve valleys
the priest look back at village once when the village leader is gone there is no hurry with verdicts in the priest's house nobody will get sick when the youngsters break firewood their souls won't go wandering in the jungle when the youngsters go to fetch water in the their souls won't go wandering in the jungle the youngsters going to the dancing place at night won't sprain their legs Í go out downslope
a valley with bamboo Í put a flower into my hair can't fathom the back of the tree can't out through its roots the village leader with his strawhat the war leader with his spear the blacksmith with his iron rob the priest with his knife walking upright on the read, reading on legs climbing nine high mountains there are footprints of tigers climbing nine mountains reaching where there are footprints of bears rilthy water, don’t let it flow on our road tree, don’t fall over the road above the path, out and pluck the woods but not so that they make a hinder on the read below the path, cutting leaves don’t let them fall on the path rats in the jungle crows in the jungle jumping the village leader reaches the place of judgement the priest reaches the place with spirits (priest:) In former times when ancestors died, the priest came to their houses today I have come to your house, dead woman we must look for a house for the village leader to stay, a bad for the priest a place for the village leader to judge a place for the war leader to keep his sword we have a house for the village leader, a bad for the priest food for the village leader and the priest in daytime is here rice for the village and the priest is here there are no clothes for them to wear the man's buttocks on top of the woman one, two, three times, and she gets pregnant one, two, three days, and she gets pregnant one, two, three months, at night spirit look at her and don't know ( that she is pregnant ) in daytime people look at her but don't know the old women look at her but can't see the old men look at her but don't know three months pass, four, five month she is pregnant at night spirit look at her and understand in daytime people look at her and know the old woman look at her and understand the old men look at her know she covers her stomach with her jacket she is pregnant for fully five months six, seven, eight month she doesn’t climb the hills and high mountains doesn’t climb the high mountains and hills going downhill her tendons feel good going uphill her legs are aching after nine months she is prepared to give birth after ten months her big stomach burst like a nest giving birth crouching down standing up, lifting her child she looks as if she has been bitten by a leech she has not been bitten by a leech but has given birth to a good child and is happy on the Shan lowland field there are dikes to hold the water she gives birth at the lower side of the house the father lifts up the child on the upper side (father:) Does the child look as good as a Shan child? I I Yes, the child looks as good as an are child if it is not a girl, it is a boy if it is not a boy, it is a girl if it is not Shan irrigation ditches, is it lowland fields? it is not Shan fields, it is irrigation ditches having lifted the child up (and found it to be good), liquor is lifted up lifting up the liquor and killing a chicken killing the chicken, the child has to be named giving the child a name after a sister’s child downslope her name is not accepted (by the new-born daughter) a name from the maternal brother’s side upslope she can start to learn to break firewood upside and downside the village she gathers small branches whether it is good or not she doesn’t know when seven, eight years have passed she can start to learn to fetch water three bamboo sections with water the girl draws water, the path is even

eight years, nine years, ten years pass by if she is born dumb and deaf her parents can’t manage her if she is more clever than others, her parents can’t handle her ten years, eleven years pass by she hers a rich man’s horses

4. ................................. eleven, twelve years have passed she makes a playhouse of leaves in the jungle, looking like fieldhut the boy and the girl stay together like a pair of leaves, growing two persons growing big together being friend staying happily together they stay happily together, drinking each other’s water the tree drinks water if the tree doesn’t drink water on top of the high tree new shoots won’t appear if the two don’t drink the water of happiness acne and boils won’t form on their foreheads ( they won’t grow up ) I don’t say that the acne on your forehead are ugly I say that the acne on your forehead are beautiful twelve years, thirteen years have passed at thirteen the time has come for her to marry passing fifteen living by yourself, you won’t be happy when she has turned thirteen her mother calls on her in the morning to get up, but she hasn’t slept enough at fifteen years of age, let’s make love if not making love yet at fifteen years of age the one who has married won’t be ashamed towards others but ashamed about not having children ( if marrying too late children won easily be born ) if not taking a wife at thirteen the time for marrying won’t be passed yet but the time getting children will have passed

Oh you girl of the same age as me you have married boys of your age ten times I haven’t married any girl of ten different age groups I am a boy who has passed ten years of age and will marry a girl five years younger than me I thought I wouldn’t marry a girl five years younger than me but a girl born the same year as I there is no girl being in her mother’s womb at the same time as I was an old bachelor who has never married I want to marry a girl five years younger than me although I thought I wouldn't marry a girl young unused fields from the same year aren't overgrown in the same way oh, you girl of my age the girl of my age group have all married times but I haven't married a single girl from ten age groups the bamboo shoots come up at the same time some bamboo shoots grow red and tall the peels at the base on some of them never open up oh, you boys of my age your red bamboo shoot has grown tall and big my spear hasn't been opened yet growing up we want to talk about love while the dog is fast we go hunting with it if we don't talk about love while growing up I don't have to worry about my own life but about children and grandchildren if not hunting with dog while it is fast it won't reach the game when it has got old the jungle fowls flap their wings flying around to get strong when the male buffalo's horns have grown a bit he learns to butt while young we learn love songs if not learning love song while young having grow up, though wanting to learn, we won't be good at it learning to while young I thought I wouldn't learn to write young having grown up, though wanting to learn, I won't be good at it everything has to be written many to be learnt while young we learn to walk if not learning to walk while young having grown up we won't be able to walk even on an level read going to the mountain where chestnut trees grow on the mountain with chestnuts the barred button quail calls the man wants to clear a good piece of land the man wants to have a good wife when the man has cleared a good field thinking about making love, he doesn't get good wife (being too slow about it is not that have a long knife but still don't want to clear field I don't even have a long knife not having a knife I can't clear the field going to a mountains with good fields it is not that I have a mattock but don't want to dig the field I don't have a mattock not having a mattock I can't dig the field it is not that I don't want to go to her brothers' good house at the edge of the village while going to her brothers' good house it is not that I have money but don't want to give it for that valuable girl I don't have any money not having money I can't pay price for that girl the tree planted by the field, growing in pairs we are together like the tree the kha-ro tree by the Shan field we are together like kha-ro tree I'll take the bee hive in the branch while it is big if not taking the behive on the branch while it is big taking it in the wrong way, the will sting our legs and arms while the Caladium is big we out off the non-edible parts I thought I wouldn't it out it while big but when eating teeth tongue will itch when the banana grows big at the edge of the jungle I'll take his fluff I thought I wouldn't take the fluff while is big but then the grubs will have taken it away I am a poor man

I am poor but it is not that I don't want to raise sow with a tail being poor, when raining a sew with a tail it won't give birth three times in one year from that one sew with a tail I won't get rich I am a hungry man being , if is not that I don't want to clear the field with ............. trees being hungry, when clearing one field with ............. trees the rice can't be harvested three times in one year it can only be harvested once a year from that one field I won't be able to eat my will the pigs go to the jungle to look for food if they didn't go the jungle to look for foog nobody else would give them food by the door (I don't have a wife who could feed them.) in the others' field the rice is ripening the rice and barley that is planted is ripening I'll dig up Caladium from others' field and steal it the owner scolds me but it doesn't matter others talk badly about me but I don't angry upstream one poor bee flies around the poor beesflies around upstream if the poor bees didn't fly around upstream nobody could have taken their hive on the high mountains an old chestnut tree blossoms the bees makes a hive there carrying (what they need) in their mouths

5. ---------------------- the good hot season has come, on heaven a comfortable sunshine the Chinese walk in endless rows on the roads the ............. Chinese are coming, the mountains are never empty they have so much sliver and gold hat their house fall over I am poor, other won't give me money I am poor, I'll will go and look for money myself the woman having passed forty-five year of age will stay at home at the woman's side the man having passed fifty, life goes on I'll will start to trade in the neighbourhood basket woven by father from bamboo strips a yoke made from the red zy tree head strip woven from the......... and .............. trees in the bottom of the basket three packages of tobacco three dried chillies from the fire-rack (to sell) I will quickly go to buy salt oh, you my girlfriend, whom I made love with first while I go to look for a new girlfriend you old girlfriend is no good, don't get angry if the old girlfriend is no good and gets angry it is hard to look for a new girlfriend making love with the old girlfriend, takes one night only there are new road and old roads while I make a new road if the old road is no good don't let weeds cover it if the old road is no good and weed cover it it is hard to make a new read remaking old road takes one morning only oh you who were my girlfriend when you were young when you grow up don't make love with somebody else if you make love with somebody else when you have grow up being taken by somebody else I can't take you back force the good tree which I look care of when it was young later to use it for roof beams when it grows up it shouldn't be by others if the good tree is cut by other when it has grow up when others have cut it I can't take it back by force I cover the small green cucumber seeds with leaves when they have sprouted, if they are picked others when other have picked them I can't take them back by force the good hot season, on heaven a comfortable sunshine if your legs aren't long, you can't walk to other countries if your arms aren't long, you can't lift the bowl with liquor I have long legs and I'll walk to other countries I have long arms, the time has come to lift the liquor bowl a small bamboo section I tie at my waist a bag made from wild vine I'll carry you girl, wait for here picking vegetable I am not telling you to wait for me for nine years I am not telling you to remain spinsters for nine ten years wait for me until I come back on the same road I went trading wait for me until I come back on the same road when three months have passed and you haven't seen my face look at the beautiful flowers while waiting for me the petals of the flowers in the field are of varied length the face of the one who loves you is as beautiful as the flower, wait for me if you haven't heard my voice for three night, wait for me listen to the voice of the barbet at the edge of the while waiting for me the voice of the barbet at the edge of the field is tiny your lover's voice is big, wait for me when men come from the village downslope, don't make love with them, wait or me when men come from the village upslope, don't marry them wait for me if you haven't made love for a long time in our village there is a widower with dishevelled hair making love at night, wait for me (it doesn't matter if you make love with him?) the sun goes down upslope girl, don't marry over there where the sun goes down if you have got married over there I can't reach to edge of your skirt the yellow sun goes down beyond the nine mountains girl, don't marry beyond the nine mountains if you get married beyond the nine mountains I can't catch the waist of your skirt when the birds fly over the nine mountains four crossbow arrows can't shoot them down I am not leaving the Shans downslope but leaving the first girl I've loved she is beautiful like the spotted neck dove I am not leaving the are people upslope but leaving the girl I've loved, soft like a cicada after three months when I come be clear will laugh happily this morning we separated for three months, tears flowing when I come back after three months we will laugh happily we are separating from each other, we who love each other I'll leave our country reach another country I can't you, I've passed on to the side yonder even though I blow my long buffalo horn you won't hear it I've passed on to a place where I can't see you walking in a deep ravine I stand on my toes but can't see you I've left our country and reached another country passed our river and come to a reign country coming to a place where other girl live coming to the edge of the Shan country to the -------- people come close between the ----------- and the ----------- the -------- wear long trousers it is not that they don't have don't have anything else to wear the ----------- wear beautiful trousers it is not that they don't have anything else to wear the -------- have their own traditions the ----------- have their own habits girl are staying there when I arrive to another village I can't get to see the girls faces do beautiful girl and boys live at the same place?

I have split a stick for a switch on the nine mountains I don't switch but I switch where the girl are switch to make them rise in the morning where the girl live I switch them to make them valuable coming to the grassfield where the deers are the deers sleep and don't want to stand up the god deer and the good dog are friend together the good game and the good dog hunt at the same place on the mountain where the deers are I beat on a bamboo section beat on a bamboo section to wake the deers up from sleeping on the mountain where deer are to beat to make them valuable I sing where are no beautiful girls shoot with good crossbow arrows where there are no good rodents a path where many people walk when other walk they don’t laugh when I walk alone I laugh if I didn’t laugh while walking alone I wouldn’t walk fast on the even road among the fields other are driving ten horses on the road while driving ten horses they don’t let them have bells on when I drive one horse only I let it have a bell on reading a big resting stone I take pause I won’t rest for long but only for a while won’t rest for a long while the big river flows in whirls in the seventh month the river rises, logs roll around the boy thinks about going back ponder about returning home when the village leader hasn’t finished judging the case (= boy buying salt ) thinking about returning home on the same road I am not shy toward those who with me but afraid for the lives of my grandchildren ( if I don’t finish my work they will later on suffer) I’ll take with the tiger about building a bridge across the deep river take with the eagle about getting across two clouds

I’ll take with a common man talk about cutting a boat, a raft I’ll talk with the priest talk about letting somebody watch boat, guard the raft oh, you group of people accompanying me, many like finishes in expanding water oh, you group many like red minnows at the bottom of a water hole let’s climb the ladder up to the boat let’s hold on the edge of the boat, whether it is thick or thin oh, you ----- people who can paddle a boat paddling the boat you look bowing your heads once bowing downstream once bowing upstream once bowing toward the middle when paddling coming to the bank of the river where many tadpoles swim around coming to the edge of the Shan fields where snails look like sun-drying rice before getting into the water I was afraid of it getting into it, not even my ankles and toenails are covered the water before crossing the river the water’s strength looked hard but when I crossed the water didn’t above my knees tying our boat by an ------ tree letting the boat anchor by a big , good stone leaving the boat upside of a big , good stone if rain comes, don’t let the boat get soaked if rain cones, cut banana leaves and cover it if the sun shines, don’t let the boat dry out if the sun shine, cover it with three rows of thatch crossing I won’t give silver and gold as fee for the boat later on going back I’ll give you salt it won’t be bad salt but good salt like the coming moon two big rivers that don’t meet each other (but run parallel) in the tenth month when the water expands, digging its way, climbing upwards step by step, they still won’t meet the fishes come down with the river but won’t meet fishes (from other streams) this morning I’m going trading in, meet you, river blue water, two sweet water streams it is sweet but I don’t want to drink the water before, the village leader and priest came here but didn’t drink now this morning I won’t drink either (fearing that the water might not be good after all) a beautiful girl stays (by the river) she is beautiful but I won’t court her before, the village leader and the priest came here but didn’t court not this morning I won’t court either I don’t make a bridge of silver and gold to cross the abyss but make a bridge of my two toes I can’t connect the big world with silver and gold but the it together with my voice coming to the resting place on the high road reaching a high tree that gives shadows for the sunshine on a high mountain I look all over the world there is nothing in the big beautiful word that I don’t see looking, my hair doesn’t cover my face I’ll have to walk for many days it is a resting place for the village leader, for the priest I didn’t know that it is a resting place for the priest but on the path spit flows in bubbles like sweet water, and so I know (from the priest’s drinking liquor) when bad persons come they rest here when bad animals come they leave footprints above the path a ................ tree with yellow flowers when I came last year the flowers were all in buds coming this year the flowers are all blossoming above the path a ................ tree where I pick its leaves (to blow with) three stems of the ................ bamboo I beat once on the stem upslope to let my parents hear me at home downslope coming to a water hole with sweet water before, the village leader and the priest drank when coming here now this morning I’ll also drink I am thirsty and will drink feeling hot I’ll wash myself in the water coming to where the man ................ and the woman ................ live walk up to the big house, the bamboo flooring sounding Ï...........Ï climbing up on the veranda, just outside the door my hands are hurting, my lymphs are painful go to the Shans, my feet are hurting, they look like a place where yams have been dug out (being that full with sores) my hands are aching, I'll like to say over for three days my feet are aching, I'll like to stay over for three nights I'm hungry and ask for food, if I get enough to eat I'll never forget it when feeling cold getting a silk blanket to cover me when feeling warm, I'll never forget it high up on the path I made a shelter of banana leaves before three morning had passed it rained when a youngster has smoked tobacco without permission before three days have passed his parents will scold him coming to the even fields, to the grass land on the level road I meet my old girl friend it didn't look as if I should meet my old girl friend on the level road when we separated three months ago our tears were overflowing now after three months we are laughing meeting her I don't have yellow and black thread to wind around her hand meeting her I don't have a packet with tobacco in the morning meeting my old war comradies, they are many and strong I though I wouldn't meet my old war comradies, many and strong, in the morning meeting them I don't have a decorated sword to draw, three fathoms long don't have a good to carry, three hands-breadths long coming out to the even field, to the grass land I'm going to market, bright like nine stars to the market where horses are looking at the upper part of the market walking to the lower part of the market searching once at the upper part (for salt) on the upper side white horses, lower side people like fog looking once at the edge of the market they are killing a pig with a good knife many horns from buffalo being killed there is nothing that is not on the market no things that are not there all kind of good things, my eyes covet them a lot of picked fruits but not much salt I'll go to the next market upslope I, the priest, the reciter walking on the level upper part of the market walking on the level upper part searching ÷ I'm going to buy salt the boy buying salt walks around looking I'll go and talk with the selling salt the boy buying a chicken walks around looking the girl who sells chickens is happy the boy buying rice walks around looking the girl selling rice scoops up the rice, like white stones the price for the salt is five coins I'll buy for fifteen placing it at the bottom of the basket packing salt, good salt at the middle of the basket he place the things he has bought buttons for the woman at the to of the basket things to eat, a hand of bananas things to drink, a brittle sugar cane oh you group going with me, many like fishes in a hole overflowing with water oh you group many as minnows at the bottom of a water hole our bodies are at the market let us not leave our eyes behind on the market lifting our feet going to the market we won't leave our footprints behind our eyes looking around, let's go back on the same road as we came Let's go back to the first market, bright like nine stars go back to the market where horses are on the even fields, the grass land on the even path where I met old girlfriend going back to where -------------- lives the high mountain reaching the river full of stones, water swirling going to the edge of the -------------- village, to the edge of the -------------- village we have passed three countries, coming out to our own land passing three rivers, coming to our own land I'll put the basket by the door leaving the good salt inside the door oh mother waiting at home choose between the good salt and the bad salt keep the good salt on the rack over the fire the bad salt I'll sell at the market scoop up from the bottom of the basket there is good salt scoop up from the middle of the basket women's things, buttons men's things, a bit of money scoop up from the top of the basket thing to eat, a hand of bananas

if the salt is no good, I'll sell it at the market I thought I wouldn't sell it on the market, if the salt was no good (but I will) if I didn't make up my mind to go trading I wouldn't get good money into my purse if don't make up my mind about to go courting I won't get a good wife I don't want to go trading anymore, I want to get a good wife if I don’t make up my mind about marrying I won’t find a good wife to make love with where the ----- people live with a lot of rice, close to the girl I’ll go courting
I will have my morning meal the morning meal, not ready until midday the midday meal, not ready until evening if the ------- just knew how to eat properly the girl doesn’t know about looking at the food ( judging how much each can eat ) if she just knew about how to talk she doesn’t know about listening to others if she just knew about walking she doesn’t know to get off the path ( she keeps bumping into people ) the ------- girl uses her finger nails as a knife she doesn’t work like we do she uses her toe nails as a mattock she doesn’t lift her feet walking like we do she won’t marry if killing a pig five fists big only (for the feast ) she is a girl who invites for a marriage with a buffalo ten fists big ( i. e. a rope around the buff ten fists long , double length ) she won’t marry with five contains of fermented rice liquor she is a gril who invites for marriage with ten containers of fermented liquor she doesn’t want to have clothes with Akha pattern but decorated from the Shans she is an ------- girl who wears a long skirt of thin cloth does she wear a bodice ?

her bodice is full of holes, her round breasts can be seen does the ------- girl wear a turban her turban is full of holes, her black hair can be seen I want to marry a beautiful girl ⅄ the horse I rid on is not bored though is nose you can’t ride on the beautiful deer in the jungle ⅄ ⅄ on the other side of nine wood piles she talks lovely like a bulbul ⅄ ⅄ she is girl who want to get married where she can eat without working a girl who wants to get married where she can live comfortably a girl who to get married with a Shan downslope you will get carried away by the river ( and get drown if you marry a Shan ) you will be eaten by a tiger like the are people upslope a girl who wants to marry a Shan downslope ten person are not carried away by the river in one day in ten days one person is carried away the are people gets eaten by tigers ten persons are not eaten in one day in ten days one person is eaten ( so better marry me, an Akha ) ⅄ ten I’ll go and look for the  })). (( fruits on the branches hanging down low if I don’t to look where the ))). are on the branches hanging down low
I won't get to know where the black drongo birds are (they will be where) the fruits are) if I don't go to the  fruit tree downslope I won't get to know where the monkey are if I know where the monkey live I will lead ten dogs with my right hand (to hunt the monkeys) in my left hand I'll carry ten crosslows the boy going hunting sets out before the others (if he knows where the game is) if not looking for yellow flowers I won't know where the red flowers grow if not looking for yellow thread on the market I won't know where the red thread is if not looking for silk I won't get to know where the beautiful girl are living if not making love with three girls I won't be able to judge between good and bad girls a boy who hasn't plucked flower three times I'll go and look for rats under the bark that has falled off the fruit tree if I don't look below the bark from the fruit tree I won't get to know where the rats live if I know where the rats live I would make three traps and set out to hunt before the others I'll go and look below the bush if not looking below the bush I won't know where the young pheasant and the grown pheasant are if I know where the pheasant are I would make three spring-pole snares and go hunting before the others I'll go and look where the branches are hanging down low full with fruits if I didn't go to see where the fruits are I wouldn't know where the barbet and the birds live if I knew where the barbet and the birds live

and set out hunting before the others upslope a widow wears a white skirt (to get married)? downslope a widower looks at her with happy eyes upstream a gopher tends to its young upslope a cat jumps fast (to catch the baby gopher) the newly born rats above a white eagle comes flying (to catch them) I a boy living upslope I'll take a stroll downslope (to find the girls) a boy living upslope I'm not yet going to where the girls are I thought I would go to where the girls are but mother hasn't steamed the rice ( for the evening meal ) yet the mother steams the rice if it were not for mother rice wouldn't be steamed scooping up the rice from the middle of the steamer there is not enough nicely warm rice in the middle, I eat the rice from the middle if not for father food wouldn't made early picking up the meat from the middle there is not enough nicely warm meat from the middle, I eat the meat from the middle eating the bones ten times if not for the women water wouldn't be fetched early I'll wash my mouth with water to get the smell away my sister-in-law has twelve beautiful gets of clothes I won't wear a piece of clothes that is not good-looking I'll wear a nice piece from the middle not dressing up for somebody else's girlfriend but dress up for my own girlfriend the rich man has twelve different dishes of food to eat I won't eat what is not delicious a rich man fries eggs with fat eating them he doesn't get wet between his teeth and tongue ( not having to add water to make it last for more persons ) when eating eggs my stomach falls satisfied a poor man eats vegetables eating he get wet between his teeth and tongue when eating vegetables my stomach doesn't feel full having eaten I feel empty below my heart girl talk like many coloured vine leaves like the vine leaves, no truth in what they say like the vine leaves, their words are empty I'll pick three ---------- flowers to let the girl smell their fragrance I won't let an ugly girl smell them but a girl who is not so ugly ( a medium beautiful girl ) three bunches of red bo-lo flowers for the girl of my choice I won't choose a girl who is not beautiful but choose one who is bit beautiful I won't hug the honey bee with golden feet I'm going to hug the girl love I won't go before the others to chase the ------------ bird but will set out to get that girl before the others a boy living upslope

strolls around downslope I stay in the middle of the village living in this village not having a wife I'll go to stay among the girls at the dancing place for three years I haven't gone courting for three years I haven't gone visiting, now I'll go not having gone courting for three years, as if I didn't think about going courting it look as if my household has been busy with sickness tonight I'll go to the dancing place many people go to the dancing ground, as many as going to the fields in the morning tonight I'll go to the dancing place calling out """ three times calling out """ three times going to the dancing place in the evening the young widower who hasn't been happy for three years not having had a girlfriend for three years, he is happy in daytime when there is hunting upstream in the jungle hunting everywhere, hunting for ten kinds of game hunting in the jungle, blowing the horn three times there is no hunting dog that isn't happy a dog many years old that doesn't want to bark any more gets happy (in his heart hearing the sound of hunting) a hunting dog many years old whose barking has shrunk to a whisper feels happy at night I'll go to the dancing place many people going to the dancing place, like going to the field huts in the evening the dancing place is full of women and men in the evening the fence is full of perching crows are there any girls with sorrowful hearts, like being shot by an arrow do I look like a crow whose black meat can't be eaten? do I look like the head of an eagle that can't be eaten? do I look like a bitter vegetable that can't be eaten? in the evening the dancing place if full of women and men are there any girl who is not happy about making love? the dancing place won't be even if it isn't plowed the boys and the girls make the dancing place level if the village is not level there won't be any offerings?

plain rice and sticky rice is offered
levelled grass at the dancing place, where the women go for fun in daytime the elders compete in singing good words in the evening the girls and the boys compete in singing at length on the grass at the dancing place there is an unmarried girl, who hasn't gone there for a long time the grass grows up in three various heights carrying a knife but not able to clear it we'll clear it with our mouths and noses (by singing) not yet having married we'll talk not yet having married, nothing bad will happen while talking only the boys are beautiful like termite hills the boy hasn't gone to the dancing place for a long time carrying a mattock but not able to clear it we two clear it with our mouths and noses where the girls go dancing, the level grass on the dancing place on the dancing place, the girls dance making lines (in the high grass) please dance, the edge of your skirts make lines I pull up the edge of my trousers on the dancing place I'll play (the jewsI-harp) and move (my body in rhythm) in the evening I'll go to the dancing place in the evening there is dancing on the dancing place heaven looks like a straw-hat (covering us) I'm not the one who started to go to the dancing place --------------- created going to the dancing place we two are not the last ones to come to the dancing place people like a pile of buffalo shit on the dancing place (staying all close to get) going to the dancing place with people gather like buffalo shit I'm not the one who started singing at the dancing place --------------- clan created the boys' lo-lo singing I'm not the one who stared the do-do singing ------- of the ------ clan created the boys' do-do singing singing the lo-lo giving one measure and half of cotion in exchange (as fee for learning this kind of singing) singing the do-do, giving a shin of a samber deer as exchange you who can't sing the lo-lo, I'll lead you outside (won't let you stay here) you who can't sing the do-do, I'll beat you with a stick of firewood so that your backs swell up looking as if you are carrying a child in the evening the dancing place is full of boys and girls those who have discarded their wives, don't select between those who are good or bad don't choose the poor boys to make love with when choosing me who is a poor boy I am the son of a mother who hasn't born many children choose between those boys who come to the dancing place if you don't make love with those who come to the dancing place if you don't make love your cheek bones will protrude (getting old fast) when going where mother has planted vegetables picking the poisonous ------------- plant which can't be eaten picking the new vegetable leaves if you don't pick the new leaves the vegetables that mother has planted won't come up in plenty the vegetables planted by mother all come out with seeds while going to the hunting place in the jungle a green deer with a single horn like a horse stunted in its growth, don't carry it, it can't be eaten a civet cat with a pattern on its head on the high mountain, don't be choosy (carry it home) when it is boiled in the pot your parents will choose (if they want to eat it or no) we who don't look the same, let's be friends we make love even though we aren't equally tall let's get married I'll clear trees which don't look the same clear fields which don't look the same in daytime clearing the fields with an are (the trees all fall) a mother with daughters and sons, a mother with three children the first born doesn't come (to the dancing place by himself) he is led by hand he last born doesn't come by himself but is carried in a piece of cloth on his mother's back coming to the dancing place, being taught to come coming to get a friend, being taught to make love I won't make love with you I'll make friend with ten other girls oh wildcat mother, who has given birth three times a year she can quickly catch a rat as fast as shooting with a crossbow having been taught to (catch rats) like shooting I won't shoot you another day I'll chase ten rats when going to the dancing place in the evening we girls and boys gather at the same place girls and boys fill it all up we girls and boys have all dressed up the girls who wear the headdress have three rows of seeds their lower legs are big and beautiful the leggings are patterned like a dog's paws blue cloth three fingers wide on the upper edge of the leggings the girl's buttocks big like a fork in the teq tree her skirt is not made of five breadths of cloth only ten pieces of cloth, her skirt black like the mynah's wings her waist is slender she dressed up with a belt wound around her waist like a black snake dresses up in a bodice with cockroach pattern with rows of beads from shoulder to waist, like wandering ants red cloth on the base of her neck ornaments on her ears, which look like bowls of lard her head like the ................ Caladium the beautiful ................ bamboo in the jungle for the white scaffolding of her headdress her forehead like the bottom of a metal bowl her hair divided in the middle on her forehead dressed up in red on the middle of her headdress (chicken feathers dyed red) looking at her dressed up with a headdress in many colours with monkey fur and chicken feathers fastened on the girls dress up for the boys the boys dress up for the girls the boy's footprints only two fingers wide his red shoes are beautiful three breadths of cloth for each trouser leg, the seams sewn double by mother the trousers, the seams, three breadths of cloth for the crouch (which hangs down low) his waist is slender wears a red belt closely fitting his waist his body beautiful like a green grub his jacket black like the crow's wings the edge of his jacket like the edge of the crow's wings between two layers of black jackets a white jacket, all three like glued together with beeswax the lower edge of his jacket fits his waist like being glued to it he adorns his beautiful neck with a good silver necklace three rows of silver chains thrown back over his shoulder silver buttons in rows on his back like stars looking like a male pheasant grazing in the jungle the tails of his turban like the palm swift’s wings the rings of his turban beautiful like our homeland the girls dress up in clothes only the boys dress up with silver and gold the boys and girls dress up for each other after one girl a hundred boys are chasing I thought I would never follow a hundred boys chasing one girl my good soul long for a girl the good girls don’t long for me, a good boy I walk around the girl but the good girl doesn’t long for me I carry one hundred good spears chasing one deer I thought I wouldn’t carry one hundred good spears deers don’t die close to the village deers die on the other side of the stream it is better if it dies close to the village I want to hung up its lower -------- on the roof beam want to hung up its shoulder blade in the ceremonial leader’s house you good girl, do you want to marry a boy with silver when he goes trading in the morning not getting anything when he goes trading in the morning getting something when the trading is on good he won’t blame the trading he will blame you for eating too much ( so don’t marry a rich boy but marry me ) knowing where the big tree is do you look for the tree where the bees are the bees have moved into a small hole the bees won’t stay but will move to another place it is not good that the bees move but the bees aren’t blamed the girl is blamed for eating honey like a bear the --------- tree with the big beautiful leaves in the jungle the planted --------- lianas, fragrant like the --------- vegetables ( in fact smelly but delicious ) the footprints of the valuable field buffalo the footprints of all buffaloes are not valuable far away there is a valuable field buffalo with golden horns there is a male buffalo with beautiful horns that is valuable the fragrant smell of a valuable girl ( which lingers on when she is gone ) not all girls who smell well are valuable there is a rich girl with beautiful mouth and nose on the high mountain the lo-mo tree with fragrant flowers a fragrant mountain its fragrance can be smelled from a long distance the valuable boy and girl, let’s live together a girl wearing a cap is valuable ( not old enough to wear a headdress ) a boy is valuable when he has just grown up if the girl doesn’t still wear a cap she is not valuable let’s pluck the flowers in the jungle while they are at their best ( still on the tree ) if the flowers in the jungle are not plucked while they are at their best they will look ant nests, being eaten by forest anis (when they have fallen down if not thinking about hugging the girl when she is at her peak the young girl will be buried in the soil (never getting married) the girl not yet wearing a cap makes love with a boy once (and then she will grow the boy grows up having made love with a girl the girl is at her peak wearing a cap when she has passed wearing a cap she is not valuable anymore the boy is at his peak just grown up if not just only grown up he is not valuable having a friend he doesn’t go to visit the Shans downslope doesn’t go to visit the people upslope the valuable boy and girl, we won’t run after them the valuable young hunting dog if it is not a young dog if won’t be valuable the sound of its barking doesn’t reach the Shans downslope we won’t chase after that valuable dog the rooster is at its peak when its tail feathers are still curled if its tail feathers are not curled the rooster is not at its peak its tail big like a thumb when the rooster’s tail feathers and short feathers grow out well it is not valuable when its head is big like a thumb, the nine peaks of its red combs grow out it is not valuable the sound of its crowing doesn’t reach the Shans downslope doesn’t reach the people upslope we won’t chase after that valuable rooster the pig is at its peak when its feet can be held in fist when its legs can’t be held in one fist it is not at its peak anymore when bulges on the sides of its stomach it is not at its peak when its two Checkers protrude it is not valuable when its foreleg where it is tied is thin like its neck it is of no value its grunts don’t reach the Shans downslope don’t reach the people upslope we won’t chase after that valuable pig the male goat is at its peak when it can turn its neck around when it can’t turn its neck the male goat is no longer at its peak when the goat’s twisted horns point towards the sky it is not valuable when the top of its horns funkles like fireflies it is not valuable when the long front hair on its things grow out it is not valuable when the male goat’s thigh hairs reach the ground it is not valuable it doesn’t go for a walk to the shans downslope doesn’t go for a visit to the people upslope we won’t chase after that valuable male goat the male buffalo is at its peak when its horns and ears are equal length when its horns and ears are not of equal length anymore, the male buffalo is not valuable when the back of the one’s hand can be pushed into the male buffalo’s nostrils it is not at its peak when it nose is bored through with Iron and we hold it with our hands it is not at its peak the tip of it horns funkling like firefires, it is not valuable it doesn’t go for a walk to the Shans downslope it doesn’t go for a visit to the people upslope we won’t chase after that valuable buffalo the station is valuable, it runs fast when it can’t run fast it is not at its peak when the stallion carry ten loads on its back it is not at its peak when the stallion can take one small load on of ten loads it is not valuable when the stallion has a rope through bamboo section below its tail it is not its peak (to stabilize the load) when the stallion has an iron bit its mouth it is not at its peak it doesn’t go for a walk to the Shane downslope

the boy and girl at their peak, we have to separate for the night I can’t stay on, midnight has come I can’t stay on my feet anymore, midnight has come I’m not like a fly that has no home to return to let’s go home let’s back home it is not that I can’t support myself on my spear I’ll go home the same road as I came supporting myself on my spear let’s go back to the paddy house (and sleep there over the night) let’s go home, sounding Íkoq koqโอ let’s go home, the bamboo section sounding Íkoq koqโอ (the spindle makes a noise in the bamboo container which the girl has at her waist) let’s go home, sounding Ízaq zaqโอ let’s go home, the cord with cowries sounding Í zaq zaq İ (the girl has a cord with cowries from her shoulder to waist) let’s go home, sounding İ de de İ let’s go home, the edge of her skirt sounding İ de de İ (touching the high gra) let’s sit on the porch of the paddy house the girl born by one mother, many boys make love with her flowers planted by one girl, many boys pluck it tobacco planted by one girl, many want to fill their pipes with it

I ask the girl for clay to eat ask her for bitter tobacco leaves to smoke a silver pipe pounded by the Shans downslope a silver box engraved by the people upslope I’ll go and ask for tobacco where the girl live other boys ask her, I also ask her she doesn’t want to give tobacco to other boys when I ask her for the tobacco she give it to me I’ll make a perching pin for the wagtails in the field other boys make one and I make one the birds don’t perch on the pin which others have made they come to perch on the pin I have made knowing where the rodents are I set a trap they aren’t caught in the traps set by other they get caught in the trap I have set I'll go to visit a widow dowlslope we good ones go to her house many people gather at her house there is nobody who doesn't stay there there isn't a single one who isn't there but there are many who aren't there there is one who isn't there in the village three girl with yellow clothes ( the black has faded ) they don't gather there for no other reason than they want to make love in the evening with their lovers when making love in the evening with her friend she doesn't want ten others to drag her away from her lover the two of them want to get married the two want get married, don't want to marry somebody else even though he has a turban beautiful like the ------------ insect, I don't want that other boy even though he has a turban with a tail at its back I don't want him ten boys wanting to make love with me, I don't want them those two want each other I want to lie down on coarse paddy husks with dew and frost as a blanket ten boys dragging me away from my lover my lover but I won't leave him the house where everybody gather when ten persons gather the floor doesn't crack don't let it crack when only one is there if it cracks when only one is there that one is no good, blamed for being no good the thirty persons that were gather will separate I'll go to where there are edible fruits upslope to where the ------------- tree is there is no place where there are not many rats (if there are fruits ) each and every rat is there when thousands and hundreds of rats are there there is one single rat which isn't there in the rich man's house a mouse without tail it doesn't gather by the fruit tree for no other reason than at night it wants to jump around comfortably (searching for in the house it think about the grubs in the rice which mother has pound white and carried ( into the house ) it think about the picked meat in the bamboo section in the corner thousands and hundreds of rats have gather the green monkeys who eat the ----------- fruits the ho-djaq rate without tail gather all upstream above the path where the wildcats defecate there are no butterflies that don't gather not a single butterfly isn't there the wings of the butterflies like being joined together they gather there for no other reason than after one butterfly ten others follow they whirl up not only to the white clouds but also to the black clouds upslope where the ----------- tree with edible fruits I always walk around the big tree to shoot the birds with my crossbow when circulating around the big tree I can't aim at the birds, the big truck is between me and the birds can't aim with my crossbow, the branches hanging down low are between I can't stay but will go to sleep, it's midnight I thought I would stay but I have no girl to stay with I thought I would go to sleep but I have one to sleep with only the yellow houseflies keep my company but I can't talk with a yellow housefly I thought I would go to sleep but I have nobody to sleep with only a rolled up sour blanket as company but I can't entwine my fingers with a sour blanket I carry my big banjo being happy when twelve other girls come filling up I don't stay I'll stay where my own girlfriend is blowing on a flute with three holes I won't go to the other thirty houses but I'll go to my own girlfriend's house the jew's-hard doesn't sound, it tongue is bad the flute doesn't sound, its tongue is no good a boy who can't blow on a flute with three holes don't try on a ground pipe with thousands and hundreds of holes the jew's-harp is the bachelor's plaything (not having a girlfriend) the flute is the widower's toy a man who always plays his jew's-harp gets pain in the corners of his mouth a man who always plays the flute gets pain at the middle of his lips I am circulating around the walls of the house where my girlfriend lives while walking around the house of my girlfriend I can't sight of her, the walls are between us I can't see my girlfriend, the walls are between us stays below the house, dog flees bite me staying by the upslope corner mosquitoes bite me staying inside the house there is smoke (my eyes are smarting) girl, don't sit on a chair inside come out and sit close to me do n't keep on sitting on a low chair come and keep on being close to to me hold the white cotton ball on your right side come out with a gourd water dipper in your left hand come out with a rolled up blanket under your right arm you don't to come out for a long time, just a little while come out to an even place, come out to the even porch coming out the even porch but in the evening it is not our place for making love it is the place for the old men to make bamboo strips the girls fell on the step of the stairs the boy holds on to the corner roof beams (going to find a better place) come just outside the house coming just outside the house it is not a place for us make love in the evening it is the place where the old women weave cloth let's go below the house to the mortar where the pestle goes up and down

it is not a place for us make love in the evening it is the place where the woman pound the rice let's go down the even road where the dogs walk let's go on the even path where the pigs go go to the dancing many times until midnight starting to go courting until midnight I often go to the dancing place until midnight not walking up the elders in the village from their sleep I'll wake up my own girlfriend at midnight we start to go courting we go away from the elders it is midnight, I can't stay on, I'm sleepy I can't stay on my feet any longer, it is midnight let's go, sounding I Koq KoqÔ I her bamboo container let's go to a small sleeping house (not used by somebody else) where is a sleeping house let's sleep together stealthily where our parents don't see us while sleeping together, not abandoning each other sleeping together agreeing with each other talking while our parents don't see us having talked stealthily together, let us not abandon our agreement when we have talked for ourselves we agree seeing each other's bodies but not each other's hearts seeing the lianas but not knowing what is at its roots seeing the white clouds above but not knowing heaven we two who will get married, let's exchange gifts so we won't change our hearts the girl's golden (to the boy) the boy keeps it firm in his hand the boy's bracelet weighing five gap the girl keeps it firmly below the ends of her belt, three hands long if the girl change her mind the boys keeps her bracelet if the boy change his mind, the girl keeps his bracelet the two's words like a thread (binding them together) words agreed upon in the evening, not to be broken in the morning if broken in the evening, joined together again in the morning like borrowing a horse's rope from the Shans (made of iron) the two's words like the mouth of a gourd lifting it up in the evening it won't be broken in the morning if it is broken in the evening, repair it in the morning let the words last like a brass bottle from the Shans the two's word like notches cut in wood won't let bugs eat the wood with notches cut on it if grubs come to eat the counting stick with notches don't let them fly away to a tree but call on the woodpecker far away (to cone and eat the grubs) the two's words firm like a stone fence we won't let pigs root around the stone fence if the pig cone to root by the stone fence when the pigs come running, we won’t let them look for food where the husks are calling on the big old wolf that eats pigs our words are like the mouth of the gourd (easily breakable) pour water into it in the evening, in the mourning it shouldn’t be broken if it does break in the evening, repair it in the morning let it be strong like the bottles of the Shan if the girl change her mind before going on the death road to ---------- (a place on the road back to the ancestors after death) before she dies she shouldn’t change her mind if she change her mind before mind before death the girl head will be covered earth by the boy if the boy change his mind, he should first think of the ---------- liana (if you pass below this liana you will die) before he dies he shouldn’t change his mind if the boy changes his mind before death the girl will stab him with a spear (look for another man, spear = penis?) seeing each others’ bodies, we now fully see each others’ hearts seeing the lianas, knowing fully what is its root seeing the white clouds above, knowing heaven the ---------- bird in the field doesn’t entwine its feet (with its mate) let us two entwingle our long legs one person’s legs only can’t be entwingle entwingleing our legs, keeping our legs close together the ---------- bird in the field doesn’t use its wings as a pillow we two hold our long arms around each other stretching out arm only, it won’t reach all around two arms stretched out reach around even though we entwingle our legs, they won’t get sprained holding our arms around each other, they won’t get stiff we drink each other’s saliva we lick each other’s tongues the two of us on one bed looking like a banana leaf spread out by the edge of the field the boy urges the girl to sweep the porch the girl sweeps the porch the boy urges the girl to sleep the girl arranges the sleeping place well the boy clears the road with his sharp knife the girl makes the road wide with her mattock (they prepare to run away) the boy clears the road as if thirteen boys were working the girl stiffens up the edges well her parents advise her not to get married (she is too young) I won’t listen to the warning words of my parents but listen only the loving words between us two in nighttime her elder brother and sister-in-law say the same I won’t listen to my elder brother and sister-in-law but listen only to the loving words between us two at night the parents advise their daughter not to get married they don’t advise that she shouldn’t eat three meals in one day let’s run away for three months when the girl and the boy run away together for three months her parents don't watch for the day of eloping if they had guarded against eloping they would have abandoned her parents anyway the two don't watch out for the yellow rooster below the house when the two think about eloping to get married they call on the hawk above to grab to it ( so it won't crow and wake up) hers parents)
we won't bring rice along when running away for three months I'll let girl breasts make up for food her breasts white like the rice pounded white by mother we won't carry meat along when running away for three months we let the small crabs in the river make up for meat let it go for the red of the buffalo killed by father we won't carry a knife when running away for three months let's use a sharp piece of the ------- bamboo from the steep valley as a knife let it go for good iron from the Shans we won't bring a blanket when running away for three months we'll use a banana leaf at the edge of the field as a blanket let it do for the first blanket sewn by mother of three pieces of cloth we won't bring salt along when running away for three months we'll use the white stones in the river as salt let it go for the good salt carried to the Shan market let's run away, let's be together for three months the girl is eloping. I we don't have enough to eat while on the run, I the boy is running away, O we are poor and it doesn't get better ( so let's go home again) he can't cut through the ------- bamboo with its long sections ( it is hard to keep on walking) in the village we hadn't made up our minds about marrying our parents warned us don't go, daughter, her parents advised don't eat three meals a day, that they didn't advise if her parents don't advise her, the daughter is not valuable if her elder brother and sister-in-law don't admonish her her fields won't get big ( won't get good luck, won't get children) our parents didn't watch out for our day of eloping when we elope to get married we still think that we can't abandon our parents ( so let's go home again) our parents are the givers of great luck the only golden rooster below the home when we elope to get married we won't call on the hawk above to grab it the only golden rooster below the house when the fog lies low rain comes a girl with many happy brothers if the fog doesn't lie low, rain won't come if her brother aren't happy, the girl is not valuable a withered tree, good and valuable, in the grass field by the edge of the forest the brothers and the valuable girl the valuable withered tree in the grass field by the edge of the forest ten good axes not enough for the base of that one tree thinking about taking one thousand or one hundred good axes while keeping on thinking about taking gone one thousand or one hundred good axes for the base of that one tree the withered tree in the grass field has become no good, termites have come to eat it the withered tree in the grass filed has fallen over we don't carry axes but push it away with our hands (of no value anymore) if we had carried axes, we would have been better off than others the brother with the valuable sister not enough with ten boys hugging that one girl one thousand or one hundred boys hugging one girl while thinking about one thousand or one hundred boys hugging that one girl the rich girl can't live by herself the girl's waist increases with a child out of wedlock if don't hug her leading her by hand if I hug her I'll be better off than the others don't you want to get married, you look as if you are going to stay in your brother's house will you stay forever in your good brothers' house will you stay in your brothers' house looking like the head of game hung up at the wall when keeping on stay on staying in your brothers' house you are not like ginger and looks planted by your brother (you don't belong to them for ever) staying on in your brothers' house for ever you are not like the jaw of a deer hung up at the in your brothers' house (which is done after hunting) the good girl must marry somebody when the girl has grown up ------------------ doesn't she roam around the village when the girl has grow up and roam around in the village she doesn't roam around in other village but roam around in her brothers' village when the girl roam around in the village, she doesn't loose her face walking around in the village she is highly respected if the village is scattered some day, she will be poor (if she doesn't marry) when the chicken grows big, it sleeps in the chicken cage sleeping in the cage, its body gets fat the girl staying in the cage (her brother is house) is not poor if one day there is no cage, she will get poor the girl is valuable, she is beating on a gong beating on a gong every day at the doorway of her brothers' house she wants to beat at somebody else's doorway the beautiful girl like a gourd handle she will marry a boy who is not beautiful, hairy looking like the ----------- tree the beautiful girl has small eyes she married a boy who is not beautiful with staring eyes the girl is delicious like the ------------- fruits staying in her brothers' house she is happy the girl is happy like the good, sour fruits above 9 word play on ḨhappyḲ and ḨsourḲ she wants to be happy in her parents-in-law Ḩis house where there are holes in the good soil, Caladium is planted the girl Ḩis house, the house of her parents-in-law if she doesn’t go to her parents-in-law, she won’t be healthy a branch of a big tree is the perching place for the ———— bird if there is not a branch of a big tree the —— bird can’t fly to perch the boar has a big hump on its back like a rice stack the boar with a hump is kept in the pen many other village hear about the one raising that pig not only many village close hear about it the Chinese village upslope, where they wear green shirts, hear about it the Chinese ——— downslope set out to get that pig the Chinese upslope with big bowls ( full of money ) set out t buy that pig they don’t give enough money for that valuable pig he doesn’t want to discuss the price, doesn’t want to sell the beautiful girl must marry somebody if the beautiful ———— girl doesn’t get married inside her brothers’ house there won’t be comfort ( they will have to fear all the time the girl will get pregnant before marriage ) a fat pig must be sold to others thinking about not selling that fat pig to others ÷ one daughter many brothers many brothers. A daughter staying at home boys in many village nearby hear about her it is not only boys on village close by that hear about her it is heard that a beautiful girl sits outside her house word about ten other girl staying ( in same village ) have not come out only words about that one girl staying there haven’t hear about where ten deers are staying only heard about that one staying there ten other girl are staying there but not single boy court them to that one girl ten boys come courting where deers are, not a single hunter to that one deer ten hunters come do you about marring that other boy ? do you think about hunting another deer ?

while that girl thinks about marrying another boy ( waiting for a better boy to turn up ) he will turn out to be an epileptic Ḩso don’t wait, marry me Ḩ÷ bees, don’t think about ten roads in the forest ( looking for flowers ) girl don’t think about ten roads to marriage water, don’t flow into ten different streams the boy takes a stroll a few times up and down the village walking two or three times, Ḩwhat Ḩis up Ḩ ( other ask him, do you prepare to get married Ḩ) it doesn’t mean anything to walk a few times ( not wanting to say that he prepares to get married ). let's soak sticky rice (for the wedding meal) why do you soak rice it doesn't mean anything to soak sticky rice I'll go to ask, the village leader's daughter (to marry me) I'll go to ask where the rich girl lives in the evening the marriage helper goes to make an agreement, but they haven't made up their minds yet next morning two person go and they have made up their minds in the evening coming with a single bottle of liquor they haven't made up their minds
next morning coming with two bottle of liquor they have made up their minds
carrying two loads of water from the even river calling on the marriage helper next door I'll go ask the rich girl there are both young and grown-up girl in that rich house if you won't let the eldest marry, will you let the youngest marry our son?

( girl's parents : ) now you are thinking about taking the young one the young girl is not fully able to work yet the young one now will later grow (we don't want her to marry yet) in the corner of the girl's house are three kinds of fermented liquor, new and old (for the wedding ceremony) ( boy's parents : ) if you don't give the old liquor, will you give the new?
( girl's parents : ) thinking about giving the new liquor then something bad will happen to our family, giving the new liquor to suck it is new now, later on it will set old (and better) below the house there are pigs of three sizes, big and small if not killing the big one, do you want to kill a small one? if now killing the small one the girl's brother killing it with pointed knife, something bad will befall us the now small one will later grow big she sees her father-in-law with high bones over his eyebrows the outer door is not high she sees her father-in-law with high cheek bones the girl's place is close to the big pole by the dividing wall ( the wall between male and female side of the house ) the girl's place is at three pieces of split bamboo she sits with her legs folded up, arms around her knees if the egg is not boiled, don't pass the egg between your hands ( the groom and the bride have to pass an egg between their hands ) when passing an egg that is not boiled it will fall down between the two's arms and legs they eat a small chicken together, eat one small egg when the two of you eat together, don't have filthy habits when the two of you together, let the food remain in your stomachs ( don't make each other vomit ) eating a delicious egg, it should remain in the stomach who sits close to the fireplace? ( what kind of bride or groom sits there ) close to the fireplace the widow sits ( a widow who remarries ) who sits close to the wall? close to the wall the widower sits the widow is by the butchering place but she can’t butcher an animal (a woman is not allowed to butcher) bones are broken with hands red meat is taken out with hands the young widower sits close to the winnowing place but the young widower can’t winnow rice (that is woman’s work) he blows the husks away (as he can’t winnow them away) he licks the husks with his tongue (he get husks all over him) what kind of money is kept downside? (where the woman is) downside there is silver what is kept upside? (where the man is) upside gold is kept in the middle is the young girl’s place (the girl who married for the first time) the road the bride walks on with her shoulder bag don’t let that road be hindered by lianas, where rats walk, or by leaves (so that she can’t arrive to the groom’s house) on the road where the rice is carried home nothing else should be left behind (to hinder those who carry the rice) in the evening (of their wedding day) they eat the intestines of the slaughtered pig the next morning she has changed from being a guest to a member of the family when she hears to cook’s crowing in the morning it is not the crowing of the cook that has been raised by her brothers but she hears the crowing of the cook that the two of them will raise the girl get up just at the break of dawn (being a diligent new wife) when dawn has come she has already pounded the rice a broom made from the long hairs of a stallion’s tail (in her parents’ house brushing the five rooms of her parents’ house the poor man’s brush made from the -------- plant, the soft parts plucked off by hand brushing a poor house with two rooms only (her new home) three iron tripods in her rich parents’ house she was used to steam the rice in big steamers on three stones (to make do for an iron tripod in her new house) the poor man’s pot falls over (can’t stay stable on stones) holding a brass kettle with handle smithed by the chinese in the morning she warms up a little bit of water to give to her father-in-law (for washing himself) to make his heart friendly towards her before her mother-in-law did everything now the mother’s duties are all place in her daughter-in-law’s hands three baskets the girl sways her body while pounding it is not rice pounded for her own parents to eat but rice pounded for her husband and herself winnowing the rice, looking like the Shan winnowing dance it is not rice winnowed her parents to eat but rice winnowed well for her husband and herself to eat when she has pounded the rice she goes up into the house she scoops up rice from the top of the rice steamer arranging the table on the women's side, she lifts it over of the men's side from downside to upside of the house the baskets with steamed rice, the rice white like the young bee larvae crawling around it is not rice scooped up for her own parents to eat but rice scooped up for her husband and herself to eat in the morning her parents-in-law don't call on her to eat (she knows herself when it is time) in the morning her parents-in-law don't instruct her about going to the field (new bride:) I see my friends (going to the fields and so I go) in the morning her parents-in-law don't instruct her about going to the fields the thin sow with pointed buttocks below the house grunts (and so she knows it is time to get started) in the village houses are built nails don't penetrate our foot soles when she walk there footprints are firm (she won't run back home) not having to bind a piece of iron her buttocks where she sits there are clear marks she lives comfortably in the big house with five rooms (with her husband) in the house five fathoms long she stays firmly when going to work in the big field the bottom of the field doesn't slide away pangolins don't dig in the middle of the field the place where the two of them go to work the sun goes down, its brightness fades the yellow sun goes down, passes over the nine mountains the girl ties her hip basket at the back of her waist let's catch crabs upstream to place my father-in-law I'll pluck flowers downslope where the great barbet sings to please my husband when the wife and husband work together clothes will fill the basket made from bamboo strips when the wife and husband gather things together the chickens will fill the cages they have one small and one big purse from the small purse they give money (for their own expenses) when there is collection from the big purse they give breast money to her parents (as payment for having brought up the wife) they have one small and one big paddy house from the small paddy house they give when other come collecting from the big paddy house they eat themselves they go home for a visit to her parents with a new carrying cloth, she asks for more children (asks her mother for good luck) with a new rice basket, she asks for new rice they have visited her parents' house with a new carrying cloth they have finished asking for more children with a new rice basket, they have finished asking for more rice the leeks, ginger, and rice have ripened (the first seeds they got from her parents) their sons and daughter have grown up the grandchildren have all grown up (their parent grandchildren) the two parents have grown old the bamboo shoots have grown tall and slender, at its base the stem leaves blow around the edge of heaven is getting old the leopard and the tiger at the edge of earth are both getting old the black mother crow on the edge of fence is getting old the hawk in the old tree by the edge of the jungle on the branches of the tree the monkeys on the lianas around the tree, the brown ants in the crow of the big tree, the green imperial pigeon in its nest upstream on a high cliff the bear is getting old on the nine mountains, the gopher in the nine hills, the ho-xha rodent on the crest of the road by a termite hill, the mother peafowl is getting old in the evening by the hot spring at the big stone fence the deer with slender horns getting old on the bare cliff the wild goat is getting old where long reeds grow, the samber deer where high grass grows, the young wild boar mother upstream by the march the wild with white, beautiful tusks among bu-pag reeds at the old field, the thrush among the zap bamboo, the big white gopher among the big zap bamboo, the gopher with yellow teeth in the field with weeds, the young black jungle rat mother by two roads with many small stones, the (a smelly animal by five roads at the abandoned field, the nuthatch upstream, the yellow rat upstream, the beautiful green magpie with red wings on the field with wild bananas, the civet cat with white pattern on its head on the edge of the branches hanging low with fruits of the sjhi-bi tree, the barbet and the eagle many bright eyes (the eyes of all the bird eating the fruits) at the fork in the road the wildcat with short tail is seen in the morning, it is getting old the otter at the fork in the river, the otter at the bottom of the water hole, beautiful like the myna bird, they are getting old in the middle of the river on a shiny stone the blue whistling thrush mother with feathers covering its thigh is getting old the fishes making pattern in the water, are getting old at the bottom of the waterhole at the surface of the waterhole, the fishes all get old at the weeds in the fields, the grubs get old the snakes get old by the ---- bushes ---------------------- is getting old by the steep edge of the earth ( the creator of earth )

---------------------- by the steep edge of heaven ---------- gets old on earth ( a mythical Chinese ) our ancestor ---------------- is getting old the upslope part of our village is getting old on a rabbit day below a good house with four posts an empty ----------------- roosting basket is tied, no eggs laid yet having laid ten eggs, the hen is getting old inside the house the mother is getting old you dead woman, your hair which you thought never would get white, has got white her body has got old, she doesn’t want her body to shrink but it does her cheeks have to become hollow the old woman doesn’t want her hair to turn white doesn’t want her body to shrink doesn’t want her cheeks to become hollow the priest is reciting the old woman wants to sell her body at the edge of heaven ( the priest will ask there if somebody wants to buy her oh, leopard and tiger at the edge of earth I want to sell an old woman selling her old body for a thousand coins but nobody wants to buy her an old woman who can’t do anything, doesn’t know anything, worth three4 coins only you can’t even buy her for riding on her a male goat is worth a thousand while still alive nobody wants to buy it ( too expensive ) a wife is worth a thousand while still alive when she has died, her needle and thread are worth nothing (nobody uses them for sewing anymore ) a husbond is worth a thousand buffaloes while still alive when he has died, he is as worthless as the dust below the house ( which the children ) use like measuring rice when your own life is finished, you can’t live somebody else’s life when the flower which you have stuck into your hair has withered, you can’t reach somebody else’s flower to stuck into your hair when you have worn your blanket to pieces, you can’t pull somebody else’s blanket over you oh, you many -------- fishes at the bottom of the waterhole oh, you -------- fishes on the surface of the waterhole I the priest is reciting I have come to sell this old woman selling her old body for a thousand

she can’t do anything, doesn’t know anything, worth three coin can’t even use her for riding
a male goat is worth a thousand while still alive nobody wants to buy it
a wife is worth a thousand while still alive when she died, her needle and long thread are worth nothing a husband is worth a thousand buffaloes while still alive when he has died he is as worthless as dust below the house used like measuring rice
when the flower which you have stuck into your hair has withered, you can’t reach somebody else’s flower when you have worn your blanket to pieces, you can’t pull somebody else’s blanket over you when you have used your own walking-stick up, you can’t cut it so it becomes as long as somebody else’s oh our village which got old on a rabbit day I the priest am reciting I have come to sell an old woman selling her old body for a thousand nobody wants to buy her she can’t do anything, doesn’t know anything, worth three coins

a male goat is worth a thousand while still alive
a wife is worth a thousand while still alive when she has died, her needle and long thread are worth nothing a husband is worth a thousand buffaloes when still alive
when the flower which you have stuck into your hair has withered,
the old woman has to get old herself has to die by herself, be in pain by herself, her own bones must rotten the old woman says that she doesn’t want to get old she doesn’t want to die, doesn’t want to be in pain, doesn’t want her bones to rotten I the priest am reciting the old woman asks me for a drug that gives no death, on pain the bamboo shoots coming up fresh in the hot season (they are not allowed to be eaten as bamboo shoots normally sprout in the rainy season) that is not a drug for no death no pain but a drug which causes new-born children to die I’ll ask at the lower part of the Shan field for the gall of a stone for the intestines of the big tree by the side of the field I pierce the stone with ten spears, but it has no stomach split the tree with ten knives, but blood doesn’t come out

she asks me to go and look for the gall of a three year old hen for the liver of a three year old hen but that is not a drug for no death no pain
but a drug which causes new-born children to die (she asks for) the galls of a big dog and big pig, three years old the livers of a big dog and a big pig, three years old
(she asks for) the galls of a big goat and big sheep, three years old the livers of a big goat and a big sheep, three years old
the galls of a big buffalo and a big horse, three years old the livers of a big buffalo and a big horse, three years old

at the spirits' market there is the gall of a three year old big, green python the liver of a three year old big, green python (priest to the spirits) I'll give thousands as payment give you ten thousand (if you sell it to me) I'll give you a buffalo which has to be hold with two ropes silver and gold, like sweeping it to them, but it is not enough giving thousands as payment, but I don't get it giving ten thousand, but they don't sell not obtaining it, I can't blame heaven not obtaining it, I can't curse earth (the owners of the medicine won't sell it) there is nobody who has lived for a hundred years if there are people who are a hundred years old it won't be more than ........................................ one of thirteen there is no growth in the jungle that is a thousand years old if there are growths that are a thousand years old only one out of ten there are no stones that are ten thousand years old if there are stones that are ten thousand years old only one out of thirteen if the ancestors asks is she a woman who still has strength to work?

(when the dead woman comes to the ancestors' abode they ask like this in order to see if it is a woman who has died before getting old) (I the priest say) it is a woman who has no strength anymore, her life has ended, I let her go to you if they ask: is it a tree with strength, with good roots that has gone rotten? it is a tree with no strength, its good roots have gone rotten, I let it go to you one's parents can't have two lives, I let her go to you one parent's parents can't wear two sets of clothes if one parent can be said to have two lives it can only be between grandchildren and children if one parent can wear two sets of clothes it is only between a new set and an old set, I let her go to you we don’t know when a tree gets old the crown of the tree has got old, only a few branches in various directions with no leaves on it is not that we can’t break off a green branch from a growing tree and insert it (into the dying tree) being able to insert a broken off green branch inserting it in the evening, it the morning it will be green but it won’t look like to tree creator made (with only one green branch on an otherwise dying tree) doesn’t look like leaves sprouting by themselves, like the creator made it we don’t know when a person who still looks young is getting old in her beautiful hair, many strands are getting white it is not that we can’t dye them with indigo (growing) by the edge of the fence being able to dye her hair with indigo from the edge of the fence dying it in the evening, by morning it will be faded it won’t look like the hair the creator made it won’t look like the beautiful hair growing by itself, like the creator made it her hair, which she thought would never get old, is getting old all her beautiful hair is getting white her eyes, which she thought would never get old, are getting old her eyes are like covered with fog her teeth, which she thought would never get old are getting old when the teeth out, food doesn’t taste good her tongue, which she thought would never get old, is getting old when the tongue gets sloppy she can’t speak clearly her body, which she thought would never get old, is getting old when the body shrink, clothes don’t fit anymore her legs, which she thought would never get old, are getting old the shin muscles shrink and get old her head, which she thought would never get old, is getting old the head and the hair get old together the hair falls off and the head can’t make up for it the eyes that weren’t old get old the eyes are entirely covered with fog the teeth that weren’t old get old the teeth and the tongue get loose together the teeth fall out and the tongue can’t make up for it it is not that we can’t cut off a piece of a bone from a Shan cow and insert it (into the mouth to make up for a tooth) when inserting a piece of a bone from a Shan cow placing it in the evening, by morning it will fall out it doesn’t look like the tooth the creator gave doesn’t look like the good tooth coming out, made by the creator the body that wasn’t old gets old the body and the clothes get loose and old together the body gets sloppy, the clothes can’t make up for it the legs that weren’t old get old the shin muscles shrink the veins of the shins are curled like ropes everywhere the mother who has eaten liver, her front teeth have fallen out ( she hasn't got old too fast because she has to chew bones ) now she doesn’t have the strength to carry three loads eating, she can’t finish a chicken leg not able to eat up anymore, she has got old the headstrap has weakened the neck part of the yoke has been worn out and got old the tree is under the power of the wind people are under the power of the spirits when a tree in the forest grows higher than the others it will be blown down by the wind in the rainy season when a person grows older then the others the spirit apho mo mi will break her down people can’t ask for a longer life the trees get old, flowers wither and bud again the water get old, flowing away and back again the village doesn’t get old first does the woman get old first? the village doesn’t scatter first in a good village, good people will be born again the woman has got old first the soil doesn’t rotten but the rice stalks left behind rotten after harvesting the rice doesn’t die, there are rice grains (kept to be planted next year) in the middle of the field, when the spirit hut is torn down after threshing, three stalks of rice are left behind animals don’t die, their offspring are left behind people don’t die, their children are left behind their grandsons many like the Chinese their granddaughters like the Chinese the old woman has got old is it a person with a torn down top ridge that has died? (a piece of thatch is taken away from the roof at the funeral, if the dead one has children it will be repaired again) it is not somebody who has died with a torn roof the edge of the house, the end of the thatched roof is in pieces in pieces in the evening, next morning it will be repaired again on a big house there are many rows of shingles the row that was placed last, does it sag first? the last row doesn’t sag first the first row sags first, tell the ancestors so in a big house nine pairs of side roof beams if they ask, does the last beam loosen first (because the bamboo strips if has been tied with rotten) the first beam loosens first, tell the ancestors so by the edge of the forest, many hands of bananas (on one stalk) the last hand doesn’t ripen first the first hand ripens first, tell the ancestors so by the edge of the forest, the red banana tree with nine layers if they ask, does the last layer fall first the last layer doesn’t fall off first the first layer falls off first, tell the ancestors so is it an able, well-known person who has come, still raising a grandmother who gives food with her fingers, tell them so a grandmother who rears children well, tell them so is she a woman who hasn’t given breast money to her parents? hasn’t she gone through the ---------- ceremony? (a cer, for women which enables them to perform the same cer, as males) it is a woman who has not given breastmoney to her parents but she has gone through the ---------- ceremony (this cer, is more important, this section is only used if the dead woman in fact has gone through the cer.) even though other ceremonies are not finished the ---------- ceremony for her is finished she can perform the ceremonies with other (as if she were a male) she has got old being above others (who have not have the cer. Made for them, it is very costly to perform), tell them so is it a mother who hasn’t pounded the rice white? has she placed the pestle at the back and got old? didn’t she go to field, getting old planting the seeds? it is not a mother who didn’t pound the rice white (she has finished all her tasks before dying) the rice she pounded is white the rice she has winnowed is clean we eat rice she has pounded, white like grubs, and she has got old, tell the ancestors so she worked in the fields the plated the rice there is a paddy spirit house, she has got old, tell them so (all rice has been carried home, enough for the grandchildren to eat during the year to come) the rice created by -------------- has got old a lot of (is kept), she has got old at the downslope water source, she has drawn all the water with her hands coming back up to the even house, she scoops up water with her hand the old woman, getting old as rich, staying at home (shielded for) the sunshine the male field buffalo is getting old, bound to a rope tied around a pole on the even ground (the sacrificial buffalo) (priest:) let my recitation be as good as others; let my recitation be good let all have good health, let me have good health the dead woman’s luck is good, the priest’s luck is good above where our ancestor is, I’ll go from the edge of heaven, I’ll go down where big fishes enter, let the stones cave be big oh maternal uncle, living upslope I've come to where the maternal uncle lives (the uncle of the dead) coming to where the ancestors live I've come to the ancestors above the wife by the ancestors has a good heart don't shake the grandparents' house it doesn't matter what happens upslope (e.g. a dog barks at you) don't get angry it doesn't matter what happens downslope don't be afraid of the grandmother living upslope upslope, a bridge made of silver silver bridge, don't shake downslope, a bridge made of gold golden bridge, don't move the ridge of the house, the thatching is no good, it rains through the fireplace is no good, it rains on it insert new shingles to cover it below the house the pigs come to root around the fireplace is no good, the pigs come rooting below don't blame the pigs insert good shingles again with your hands the fireplace is no good, chickens come scratching the fireplace is no good, when chickens come scratching don't blame the chickens brush it well again with a broom if a fast tiger comes to where the buffaloes and horses are to drag them away don't let the tiger see where the buffalo is slaughtered when slaughtering a chicken, didn't let it see its liver when somebody claim me for my parents' debts if my parents didn't owe you the money (my parents are dead now and I didn't know whether you tell the truth or not) if I am not in debt and you ask me for money I'll call on my ancestors (to hold you responsible for lying) when hunting, the owner of game if there are no traps set by your own grandparents if you take the game from traps not set by you I'll call on the spirit owner of game (to hold you responsible) the four corners of the house, stuck by the wind the four sides of the field, (weeds) growing up high eating once (bad food), the body gets sick drinking once, the blood doesn't flow building a house, people will fill it soon working in the field, ten people will work their soon (children growing up) asking my elder brother for a loan, borrowing from my younger brother, I'll pay back soon I don't know where my maternal uncles live before not too long I'll go and visit them I don't know where the ---------------- bamboo grows coming close, I can see the peels blowing in the wind eating once (good food), I get healthy drinking a mouthful, my blood flows oh grandparents, living upslope coming to the grandparents' house, the stairs the grandmother tying things with her right hand termites in the soil, don't cast off your wings the -------- eagle, don't stretch out your wings to fly (bad omen if it comes to the village) bee larvae, don't make a hole in your cocoon when others' children come (following their parents to the field), don't delay them when others' children are born, don't go and look if you abandon your own children don't care about others' children if you abandon your own rice don't think about others' field, where the rice gets yellow (even though you help them with harvesting, you won't get the rice) it doesn't look like the rice you have weeded yourself when the ------------ people lead a daughter-in-law home, don't drink (their liquor) it is not the same as drinking when leading your own daughter-in-law when the ---------- people lead a daughter-in-law don't eat the liver it's not the same as eating liver when leading your own daughter-in-law home when the -------- people beat on drums, don't listen to the sound it is not the same as listening to the beating of your own drum when the -------- people beat on their gongs, don't move your hands it is not the same as moving your hands in rhythm when beating on your own gongs the people downstream have silver, don't let your soul wander to their silver the people upstream have gold, don’t think about their gold the silver downstream is like the cock’s crowing (it can’t be kept) it is a kind that disappears like a bird wagging its tail flying over nine countries

the gold upstream is like the calling of a dove it is a kind like the dropping (of a dove) on the Shan fields in the nine countries
my own house where there is nothing, I live there as if there were a lot my own house where there is nothing, I let it be as if there were a lot when there is a breeze downstream, keep the children at home when there is a breeze upstream, look at your children’s faces watching the soil, taking good care of what is planted for the sake of the new (just planted) and the old (in paddy house) rice when heavy rain is coming, carry your children back for the sake of the red river overflowing weeding at the edge of the field, walking around at the bottom of the field below the house, watching the good roosting basket with eggs watching the house, walking around the corners (looking out for thieves) staying at home, carrying the children on your back if when guarding your house, you don’t walk around the corners nobody else will walk around (and guard for you) if when staying at home you don’t carry your children nobody else will appear to carry them oh grandmother in the house upslope, tying with your right hand the house, and then there is guarding reaching ---------, who guards everything after guarding then the great grandparents coming out to where our ancestors live, to ----------------- ---------- takes care of children ------- looks after children the mother upslope, who makes children, don’t change your work the mother in the middle who gives birth, don’t stop giving birth the midwife downslope, who takes care of the child after birth, don’t abandon lifting up the child the midwife’s hands like a brush (washes all dirt away after birth) wipe away the child’s feces, don’t vomit cleaning with small fingers when the child pees, don’t be afraid oh ancestors, ---------- upslope after giving birth, conceiving (all taken in backward order)

coming to ------------- (creator of children) conceiving, like water flowing upstream, woman, don’t abandon conceiving the man inseminating, don’t break the line woman, don’t stop conceiving man, don’t abandon inseminating hen below the house, don’t stop laying eggs oh ancestors, ---------- upslope after conceiving, inseminating the pigs pick the chestnuts but don’t get fat coming back home (being fed) they get fat drinking mother’s milk, the child won’t grow eating rice it will grow calling on the good child, he answers one boy makes the edge of the boat, two boys hollow out the log for it when (offering to the ancestors) at the upslope and downslope sides of the field, we go in groups like egrets (at the river) (one person alone is not allowed to make the offerings in the fields) hip baskets woven by hands, rice kernels picked by nails sickle curved like the elephant’s trunk and tusk it is not allowed to take somebody else’s rice I’ll keep to my own rice the sickle like a big buffalo horn I can’t take somebody else’s rice but take from my own fields in the morning (going to the fields) there is dew in daytime (carrying) the rice basket if not working hard, the basket won’t be full working hard, ten baskets will be full the woman carries her baby in front on her back she carries a basket overfull with rice the one who doesn’t carry doesn’t have a heavy load the one who carries has heavy load the ------- leaves become rice (the paddy house is lined with these leaves) the one who doesn’t eat doesn’t get satisfied the one who eats gets satisfied the reeds (are filled with) liquor (at the ceremony for women) the one who doesn’t drink liquor doesn’t get drunk the one who drinks get drunk the rice in the field grows carrying the rice, common and sticky rice people coming to life, women and men animals coming to life, sheep and goats coming on the road having torn the field spirit hut (after harvesting) the road over low and high mountains (fields are often far away) the road where the dog jumps over the streams the road where the boar, five fists big, comes (the rope around its stomach is measured) tied by its leg, like a small neck (a pig can’t be tied around its neck) the road where the buffalo, ten fists big, comes deep holes in the earth (where the buffalo has tread), roots are cut across where buffalo come, don’t make fences where silver and gold come, don’t make small fences at first, the gate where the rice comes out don’t fell the ------- tree so that it hinders (the rice to be carried) in the middle, the --------- tree, where people come out people should not tread on the leaves of the --------- at last, where animals come out don’t let the nose of the buffalo, looking like a big stone, be torn ( the muscle through which a hole is bored for the ring ) having passed the --------- tree, putting the rice on the winnowing tray having winnowed, giving the rooster to eat having winnowed, giving the pig to eat placing the rice in the mortar having pounded, giving the goats to eat going up ( from below the house ) to pour the rice pouring, giving the buffalo to eat giving the stallion to eat don’t stop raising stallions don’t abandon raising mares at the month of New Year the men close the door to the paddy house (after the New Year’s celebrations it is ceremonially opened again ) by a rich man’s paddy house many people gather ( for the meal at the opening of it ) don’t change the gathering place at the edge of the paddy house the elders gather don’t let the gathering place empty the rich man’s paddy house is not smooth, lumps of bark from the --------- plant is thrown in the make it smooth ( even though the paddy house is good enough, this has to be done at the ceremony ) the edge of the paddy house is not even, I’ll make it even with a knife the bottom of the paddy house is not even, I’ll make it even with a mattock the opening of the paddy house is not even, I’ll make it even with a wooden scraper

the opening of the paddy house is not even, I’ll make it even with a pig ( which is sacrificed ) pouring rice into the paddy house, let it increase at the bottom, be enough for a year, be always available for all generations the edge of the rice steamer, scooping up rice at its bottom, let the rice increase, be enough for a year, be away available for all generations cutting meat on the cutting board, at the end of the cutting board let the meat increase, be enough for a year, be always available for all generations I’m arriving to the house in heaven, where rice, people and animals are created

12. ----------------------

I’ve come to where your male ancestors live to where your female ancestors live ( to tell them about buying a buffalo to be given to them ) you up there, don’t abandon to keep lard keeping lard up there when the sun shine, don’t let it melt the beeswax is soft and sticky when rain falls, don’t let it rotten on, male ancestors coming close to the ancestors, arriving to talk with them ( about the buffalo coming close to the ancestors in ----------------- I let them know coming close to the ancestors in ----------------- talking about having money or not ancestors, I don’t know if they have money or not (if the relatives of the dead have money enough to buy a buffalo I thought about not informing you ancestors, I don’t know if they can get money or not being close to the ancestors, if not letting them know the ancestors know entirely themselves if they have money or not ( the words are in fact said to the deceased who of course knows if there is money enough in the household or not) I though about not telling the ancestors in ------------------- you are a kind who have sacrificed buffalo and wrapped corpses we here won’t abandon wrapping the dead the ancestors have sacrificed buffalo and wrapped corpses since generations we can’t give up wrapping the dead our ancestors are a kind that have sacrificed buffalo and wrapped their dead

I though about giving up wrapping the corpse others will hear about it and slander me, and I’ll fell embarrassed our ancestors are of a kind that have sacrificed buffalo and wrapped their dead I though about abandoning wrapping the corpse downslope, the --------- flowers are no good as for you (the dead), ten banana stalks looking alike (your ten sons all with one heart) making them look like one stalk your ten sons, many like the Chinese must look like one (all helping each other at the funeral) ten banana leaves like one hat I thought they wouldn’t look like one stalk all the thing in the house will be taken by others (if the children spend their time quarrelling with each other instead of looking after the house) ten sons, many like the Chinese I thought they wouldn’t look like one the horses in the pen will be away by others a mother with a daughter, she will look for the wrapping (a daughter of the dead mother) a mother with sons they will buy the buffalo to be sacrificed the daughter thought she wouldn’t provide the wrapping others with ten eyes won’t see it (most villagers won’t notice) but one or two people with scrutinizing eyes will see it (and she will feel embarrassed) and that is worse than ten eyes the mother with sons, the sons thought they wouldn’t buy the buffalo others with ten mouths won’t anything one or two people with sharp mouths will say it all worse than the ten mouths elder brother downslope must lend money (for the buffalo etc.) younger brother upslope must lend money at the elder brother’s house downslope money has been obtained at the younger brother’s house upslope money has been borrowed afterward, in the evening borrowing money, next morning I’ll repay it borrowing in the evening, repaying by next morning I though I wouldn’t borrow money from my elder brothers downslope but while looking downslope of the house, it can be seen that the stairs we tread on are loose looking above once, the roof beams have become bare (the thatch has fallen off) looking once into the basket, at the bottom of the basket not as much as a handful of torn clothes looking once into the paddy house, not even empty rice shells left at the bottom of the paddy house (nothing to feed guests with) looking once into the purse at the bottom of the purse not a single coin I’ll call on the elders of your village (said by the priest) call on nine village leaders, ten priests call on the money collector I the priest recites calling on nine village leaders, ten priests in your village calling on the money collector in the village in a bowl from a scale, thin like the wings of a cockroach into a bag patterned like the wings of a woodpecker (the money is kept) I tie it onto my waist at my back (said by the man who is going to buy the buffalo)

I have to go out of the door to buy the buffalo thought that I would not set out to buy the buffalo but the village leader having gone (to the funeral would lose his facet the priest having gone (to recite) has been thinking that he would eat his fill (of the buffalo meat)
I the priest recites
don’t let the village leader loose his face don’t let the priest not eat his fill I don’t know if I can only get a small buffalo, looking for a big one don’t know if I can only get a thin buffalo, looking for a fat one looking for a long one, don’t know if I can only get a short one I the priest recites
setting out with an empty rope hanging in circles around my shoulder I have to go to buy a buffalo the buffalo buyer has gone out of his door going wearing an empty rope hanging around his shoulder coming back, I don’t know if he manages to lead a female buffalo by the end of the rope going, I walk with a red as a walking stick coming back, I don’t know if I will have a switch cut from wood to lead the buffalo on with people gather together gather together, looking like an evenly cut bamboo section (gathering in the house of the dead) walking on a path where many people have walked I’ve passed my own country and come to another country passed our river and come to another country to the Shan market downside bitter fruits, upside sour fruits I'll have a looking at the buffaloes looking at the buffaloes face, listening to its voice when going to look at the buffaloes face, listen to its voice where do the buffaloes stay the buffaloes stay on a steep place ( they can walk anywhere ) where do the buffaloes lie down eye lie down on an even place where are the buffaloes tied the buffaloes are tied by the ------- tree leaves of the ---------- vine are picked for the buffalo a buffalo eating salt a buffalo eating tender young leaves of the -------- bush upstream downslope the buffaloes are driven together, the buffalo raisers appear three young men appear driving the buffaloes the sellers and the buyers talk together looking at the buffalo, I'll see if its four legs age straight looking at the buffalo, looking once at its legs are3 its legs straight, its hoofs good its legs are not straight, its hoofs are not good it is a buffalo with crooked legs, crooked hoofs looking at the buffalo, looking at its buttocks it is a buffalo whose ears are not straight, whose horns are not beautiful looking at its horns once, it is a buffalo with twisted horns looking at its ears once, it is a buffalo with torn ears the middle of its head, its horns don't turn towards me ( it doesn't look straight out but turns its head ) the hairs on its back are not turned well towards me hands reach when grabbing but won't reach food to eat ( when the food isn't good I'll put it back again ) reach walking with my feet, but my footprints won't reach ( I won't let my footprints remain, the buffaloes are no good here ) there are only a few buffaloes, I won't discuss about buying let's go and discuss buying where there are many buffaloes I won't drink from the bowl with liquor, we won't be friends (the seller and the buyer) let's go where we can drink well and make friends where there aren't many buffaloes, I won't talk about buying where the field buffalo stays, I have no rope where there are rich people with silver and gold, I am poor and distressed our luck is great, children are born and parents are happy giving birth, when the water comes, cutting off banana leaves and spread them out on the market (to give birth on) the maternal uncle and his sister's children are good on a market where you can buy everything

I'll go to buy a buffalo (at another place) I'll ask to have a look at the buffaloes' face, listen to its voice where are the buffaloes the buffaloes stay on steep place where do the buffaloes lie down they lie down on a level place where are the buffaloes tied they are tied by the ----- tree leaves of the ----- vine are picked for the buffaloes a buffalo eating salt
a buffalo eating the tender young leaves of the ----------- bush upstream asking the buffalo breeder, we talk together looking at the buffalo, at its straight legs and four hoofs downslope three persons appear driving buffaloes oh you three friends driving buffaloes
looking at the buffalo, looking at its straight legs and four hoofs looking at the buffalo, looking once at its legs it is a buffalo with straight legs, with beautiful hoofs looking at the buffalo, looking once at its buttocks the hairs on its back are all turned towards me its horn at the middle of its head are turned towards me my feet reaching (the market) my footprints also reaching (let them remain here, I'll buy a buffalo) gabbing food with my hands, the food reaches me (the food is good, I'll eat it) if not drinking a bowl with liquor, we won't be friends drinking together, we will be friends where there are only a few buffaloes, I don't want to discuss buying where there are many buffaloes, I have finished discussing about buying giving five ------- as a price for the buffalo giving five ------- as payment for the buffalo I'Ve got the female buffalo raised by ------------------ I'Ve got the buffalo raised by--------------------- going, I wore an empty rope in circles around my shoulder coming back, I get to lead a buffalo at the end of the rope going, I used a reed as a walking stick coming back, I drive the buffalo with a switch a with a split top

I the priest recites
I won'lt loose my face towards the village leader won'lt loose my face towards the priest reciting oh dead mother, I'm not coming home with a short buffalo but with a long one oh dead mother. I didn'lt get only a small buffalo but a big one oh dead mother, I didn'lt get a thin buffalo but a fat one oh you group of people ( who have gone with me to the market ), many like the water overflowing the waterhole oh you group, many like the -------------- fishes many like the ------------- fishes at the bottom of the waterhole my body enters the market but I won'lt leave my eyes behind my feet reaching the market but I won'lt leave my footprints behind my eyes , I will return the same way as I came uncle, nevues on the market, let go home giving birth to children, water flowing, banana leaves let Is go home to the --------- market, the --------- market

to the market with bitter fruits and sour fruits, let's go home having passed others' countries, reaching our own having passed others' ricers, reaching our own country by the river, I don'lt know whether the buffalo is clean or not washing it with water coming to a fork in the road by the fork in the road, not knowing if the buffalo is clean or not below the path, Ill clean it with a wildcat's excrements y the village, I don'lt know if the buffalo is clean or not reaching the porch ( of the house of the dead ) the buffalo must be tied here must keep the buffalo tied here I though I would tie the buffalo to the porch but I can'lt tie to the porch that is a place where elders go urinating not tying it there can'lt tie the buffalo to the porch by the covered veranda, where the pigs root around ( below ) Ill tie the buffalo there bind the buffalo there not binding the buffalo there I can'lt tie the buffalo there it is the lace where the elders spit Ill have to tie the buffalo below the house bind it and let it stay below the house I though I would bind it below the house thinking to tie it and keep it below the house below the house is the pigs sleeping place I can't tie it there can't bind the buffalo there at your house (house of dead), by the four central posts won't tie the buffalo to the four corner posts Ill bind the buffalo to the middle central post (that is the first post that is raised by house building and where the offerings to the earth are performed)
I won't tie it to the four corner posts of the house but Ill bind it to the middle central post of your house your eldest daughter-in-law one rooster, three years old, with nine peaks on its comb preparing a tray with offerings nine lumps of reeds from upstream first, giving the good buffalo to eat the animals which I have brought to the pen from outside will be looked upon as the hen I have raised myself a daughter-in-law from somebody else's house will be looked upon as one of my own family oh ancestors in-- , oh ancestors ancestors, one female buffalo don't let go to the rope which you are holding in your hands don't cast away the end of the rope, which you are holding with your fingers (hold on to the buffalo offered to you)

13. ---------------------------

I have come to your ancestors' abode in -----------------
I the priest recites
words of rain and sunshine, I clearly report it all (everything concerned with the dead is reported to her ancestors) tell all the word to you words many like rain, I report it to you I the priest who recites there are no stones in heaven on earth there are ten (= many) stones the ten stones that are here we won't give to you but will beat with a bamboo section on a flat stone, the sound multiplying (the priest beats the rhythm while reciting) there4 is ----------- in heaven on earth there are ten -------- bamboos the ten -------- bamboos there are we won't give you but give you one sugar cane section (elaborate word for the bamboo section used) the handle, like a walking stick the top of the handle, like a butterfly's tongue (split in two) I beat so it is heard upstream and downstream I beat (the whole night) like the sun shine the whole day on heaven and the even earth from the priest's shoulder bag, this household's paddy house will be full (the household will prosper as it has bought a buffalo for the dead, luck will come from the recitations) from holding the handle, cutting a gourd as ladle (for scooping up the daily rice, i.e. let there be enough rice) dead woman, beating for you, let your good luck return to us

beating close to your elder brother, beating in the village beating close to your second brother beating close to your youngest brother beating close to your eldest daughter-in-law at first there is nobody who isn’t distressed first being sorrowful. Later let us be happy, I’ll beat for you at fist there is nothing but hunger first we are hungry, later let us be satisfied, I’ll beat for you at first nothing but coldness first we are cold, later let us be warm, I’ll beat for you at first our tears are overflowing, later let us smile, I’ll beat for you at first our mouths are pouting, later let our laughs echo like the voice of heaven if not feeding the pigs below the house they won’t get fat feeding the pigs below the house they will get fat, I’ll beat for you the paddy house we eat from, not taking rice out (daily) it still doesn’t multiply? the paddy house we eat from, taking rice out (daily), let it multiply not scooping up from the rice steamer, still there won’t be more rice scooping up from the rice steamer. Let there still be rice, I’ll beat for you the ladle for scooping up liquor, don’t use it for scooping up from the good pigs’ pool upslope scoop only up liquor with it as before, I’ll beat for you the rack on which rice is steamed don’t use for steaming the bitter bulbs from the high mountain steam only rice as before, I’ll beat for you let the splinters which we pick up downslope change into silver and gold, I’ll beat for you downslope scooping up from the pigs’ pool, let it change to liquor, I’ll beat for you beating for you, let your luck turn back to us let your luck return to us in heaven there are no trees on earth there are ten trees I won’t give you the ten trees there are having died, lift the house on your coffin with your hands when you reach your ancestors’ land (a house-like structure is placed on the coffin, made of bamboo with a piece of cloth as roof) in heaven there is no cloth on earth there are ten pieces of cloth I won’t give you the ten pieces of cloth there are when you reach your ancestors’ land lift up the good wood with the white cloth like a hat (over it) when you reach there lift (the bamboo pole with) the sun and the moon (a bamboo pole with wooden pieces cut in the shape of the sun and the moon and a cowrie for a star is stuck though the roof down to the coffin during the days of ceremonies) reaching there with striped cowries as stars looking as if they are walking (bouncing up and down hanging on a thread) dead woman, the edge of your coffin like a log to sit on time for opening the coffin the --------- makes up for gold (on the lid of the coffin there is a small İknobır protruding, called ----------) you are reaching there with everything done for you when somebody dies in the village, they are buried in the black earth the time has come to bury you in the black earth being in pain, dying, like starting a fire (the Akhas don’t burn their dead, but the burial appear like a burning, everything disappears) the time has come for lightning beeswax tapers people gathering (for the burial), like tadpoles in the stream time for gathering in plenty, like waterbugs the Akhas are buried in the earth, nice and warm, time has come to finish talking the Shans burn pain (and death), they are distressed the spade is sharp, the time has come for cutting stones to pieces (when digging the grave) when the wild figs ripen on the old field the time has come for groups of many fast deers on the mountain to gather (to eat the fruits) on the old field the  ----------, with a bit of fuzz on its leaves, is blossoming the time has come for thousands of bulbuls to gather there the time has come for the maternal uncle to come out in the village (an uncle of the dead, the women in the village give him liquor to drink on the porch of the dead İ’s house on the second day of recitations) time has come to draw water from the same source, laughing together where there is smoke, the crested goshawk comes down the time has come for the crow to come down where there is red blood the time has come when everything has been said, when everything has been done the time has come to make accounts the time has come to make up debts a boar offered at the third morning of recitations at first, a sow to the rice (a pig is offered after each night of recitation) let the planted rice fill nine paddy bins then one pig for ancestors (or people generally?) let the nine plains be full with children at last one pig for animals (domestic animals) a pig given to make animals thrive

I give one female buffalo to you one female buffalo as companion when you walk on the road to land of spirits don’t let go of the rope in your hand don’t let go of the rope at the tip of your fingers let the village see (the buffalo as your companion) the soil dug with a mattock is even, gently (blows the wind) in the evening let the ancestors ------ see ( the buffalo ) the land of the spirits seeing the even earth the wild banana buds growing in the soft soil by the good spring see it the stones in the dry soil by the big waterhole, the overgrown field see it women and men in the village see it the sticky rice and the common rice in the fields see it a female buffalo at your death, a companion on the road to the ancestors .......... if the pillow where you are going to sleep is not even, a buffalo to make it even if the place where you are going to sit is not stable like a termite hill, a buffalo to make it stable I'll give you a female buffalo where your ancestors live, I the priest rain words and sun words, I've told them all clearly reciting them to the end like rain, I've told them old I'm at your ancestors' place, the those who raise horses make a fence pointing to heaven those people who have strength carry their knives pointing towards heaven I'm arriving to your -------- ancestors downslope, I the priest reciting rain abandon to keep lard up there

when the sun shines, don't let the lard dry having ( good luck ) up there, glueing with soft beeswax when the rain falls on the high mountain, don't let it rotten downslope of the ------------ ancestors' I abode there are three --------- trees which don't grow there are three withered person who don't die there are three house posts that don't break three withered persons who don't die their knee caps appear like a drumstick for a gong, and they don't die ( no flesh left on their legs, only bare bones ) in their nostrils bats sleep over, they don't die cucumbers that don't die but are let to live --------- liana that don't die burning them over nine fire-places, they won't die pouring hot water over them nine times, they won't die the reason why they don't die is nothing but that they have a compassion for the nine layers of soil below it is not that they have a compassion for the nine layers of soil only they think of the dew and frost above downslope of the ------------ ancestors' I abode this year we fell for you ( for your coffin ) by next year many small trees will grow up straight good trees will point towards heaven this year we fell zap-bamboo for you ( for poles to carry coffin on ) by next year young zap bamboo will grow up straight good zap bamboo will point towards heaven this year we fell the ----- tree for you ( to make ropes for binding the coffin to the carrying poles) by next year young ---- trees will grow will up straight next year good ---- trees will point towards heaven this year we fell a cotton tree for you ( for lining the coffin) by next year young cotton trees will grow up straight next year the good cotton tree will point towards heaven this year we use up all the cloth for you ( for wrapping the dead) by next year new cloth equally long ( will be woven) next year good cloth will point towards heaven ( piled up high) the new cloth won't be enough ( because of many children) dead woman, let the inside of your house be full ( of children) this year we fell the silk tree ( a piece of red silk is placed on the corpse) by next year young silk trees will grow up straight the good silk trees will point towards heaven the new silk won't be enough dead woman, let your house be full ( of children) this year we fell a --------- tree for you ( kind of silk) by next year young --------- trees will grow up straight next year the good --------- trees will all point towards heaven the new --------- cloth won't be enough next year let the young children grow up straight towards heaven

at first there is burning everywhere ( when clearing the fields) at first there is fire and then growths come to life in plenty if the buffalo mother doesn't grass, the abandoned fields won't grow up again ( the buffalo clears the undergrowth) when the buffalo grass, the abandoned field grow up again at first, it is not that water overflowing doesn't recede when the water recedes, stones appear like stars upslope of the --------- ancestors' abode by the gate where the red earth is dug even there is an earthen cooking pot, red like a termite hill, moulded by the hands of the Shans this year we cook meat for death and pain next year we'll cook meat for the health of the living ( i.e. after funeral) the rice steamer made by people with good hearts this year we steam rice for death and pain next year we'll steam rice for the health of the living the woman treading softly with her feet this year we pound rice for death and pain next year we'll pound rice for the health of the living the palms of the woman's hands are soft like the de-ne fishes the year we break firewood for death and pain next year we'll break firewood for the health of the living the finger nails are good and red this year we sew for death and pain ( the shroud for the dead) next year we'll sew for the health of the living eating from bowls, our big teeth sharp like knives this year we eat for death and pain next year we'll eat for the health of the living our eyes are glossy and green this year we look at the face of death and pain next year we'll look at the faces of people of good health our big beautiful ears with wax this year we listen to the voice of death and pain next year we'll listen to the voice of good health upslope of the ancestors I abode the village leader downslope, the village leader upslope, the time has come to arrive the war leader downslope, the war leader upslope, the time has come to gather the blacksmith downslope, the blacksmith upslope, the time has come to gather the priest downslope, the priest upslope, the time has come to gather in heaven there are no stones on earth there are ten stones won't give you the ten stones there are but the round, smooth stone to beat the rhythm on in heaven there are no pigs on earth there are ten pigs won't give you the ten pigs there are but the bamboo section (to beat with while reciting) its handle like a walking stick the top of the handle like a butterfly's tongue downstream will know, upstream will hear (the beating) heaven and the even earth will listen, all days when the sun shines I'll beat for you from the priest shoulder bag nine paddy houses will be full (blessing for the living as they have sacrificed a buffalo for the dead) because of holding the handle rice will be harvested, I'll beat for you I beat for your good luck to come back here I beat for your good luck to stay behind at first we are all in mourning at first mourning, then happiness, I beat for you let it later be as if there were no mourning at first at first there is nothing but worries at first worried, then piece of mind let it later look as if there at first were no worries at first there is nothing but coldness at first coldness, then warmth let it later look as if there at first was no coldness a first tears overflowing then a bit of laughter at first mouths pouting, then smattering laughter like an echo of the voice of heaven, I beat for you dead woman, I beat for your good luck to return to us beat for your good luck to stay with us beating many times, beating for rice, children, and animals to thrive if the boar below the house is not raised, it won't get fat the boar below the house is fed all days and gets fat, I beat for it the paddy house we eat from, not taking rice out it still doesn't multiply the paddy house we eat from, taking rice out daily, let it multiply I beat not scooping up from the rice steamer, still there won't be more rice scooping up from the rice steamer many times, I beat for the rice to become more the laddle for scooping up liquor don’t scoop up from the good pigs pool upslope with it scoop only up liquor with it as before, I beat the rack on which rice is steamed don’t steam bitter bulbs from the high mountain on it steam only rice on it as before, I beat scooping up from the pigs pool upslope, let it change into liquor, I beat sweeping the house many times, not sweeping good luck away in black heaven there are no trees on the black earth there are ten trees the ten trees there are I won’t give to you having died, reaching spirits land lift up the  with your hands in black heaven there is no cloth on black earth there are ten piece of cloth the ten pieces of cloth there are I won’t give to you the m mi ancestors, good wood with white cloth covering it as a hat is arriving ( the house structure on the coffin ) reaching with the sun and the moon, with striped cowries like stars walking the time has come when a thousand things have been done for you the time has come when a hundred thing have been finished dead woman, your coffin will be loosened a bit ( so your luck can come back ) lifting the lid a bit, the top knob like gold like silver, the time has come with a sharp spade cutting off stones ( for the grave ) dying in the village, a hole in the deep earth times has come for a hole in the deep earth pain and death, the time has come for beeswax tapers people gather like tadpoles in the river people gather many like waterbugs for the Akhas, time has come for burying in the earth, good and warm the Shan, after pain ( and death ) the time comes for burning and they are distressed when the wild figs ripen on the abandoned field the time has come for thousands of fast deers to gather on the nine mountains when the ------> trees blossom in the old field the time has come for thousands of bulbuls to gather where smoke appears, the goshawk flies down where red blood appears, the time comes for the crow to fly down the maternal uncle song is sung in the village time has come to draw water from the same well time has come for counting debts time has come for accounting I give a boar for the  offering first, one pig offered for the rice to fill nine paddy houses then one pig offered for people to fill nine plains with children at last one pig offered for the animals offered for the animals to thrive giving one buffalo cow don’t let go of the rope in your hand leading the buffalo cow don't let loose the tip of the rope at your fingers the village sees (the buffalo) the even earth dug with a mattock the even earth the even earth, spirits land the good water source, red banana buds the big water hold with dry stones, the growing fields, they see (the buffalo the men and the women in the village see it the sticky rice and the plain rice in the fields see it one buffalo cow

a companion on the road to the ancestors m mi after death if the pillow where you will sleep isn't even, the buffalo will make it even if the place where you will sit isn't stable like a termite hill, the buffalo will make it stable upslope of your ------------ abode rain words and sun words, I've said them all I give a buffalo cow

I the priest, the reciter rain words and words, I've told them all below the house, the ------------ spirit, good like a Chinese, I have arrived

15. ------------ a tray with small strips from the ----------- bamboo many small strips must be made I though about not making many strips if there aren't new and old strips there won't enough (for weaving) the priest has not finished reciting yet having to recite many times I though I wouldn't have to recite many times if there aren't new and old recitations it won't be enough I'll think (clearly) like the water upstream, like the sun and the moon clear like the water upstream, clear like the sun and the moon let the elders and the village leader be clear thinking the clear water in the big river flowing in bends you are not a youngster without knowledge going to the dancing place you are an adult with knowledge like a Chinese you are not like a small, blunt knife but a sharp knife with a big handle

if you don't go close to the ----------- people you won't know enough (staying at the same place as the Akha ancestors) now you will know it all being close to them the young ones have many words (telling good and bad in a mixture) you should choose only the good parts if there are excrements of dogs and pigs on the crest of the road (when you go to the ancestors) if the dog excrements are no good, tread on it with your feet if the pig excrements are no good, break off fern to cover it if the chicken dropping are no good, take ashes to cover it on earth your heart was good like an orchid in spirits\l country don't let your heart think too much on earth your heart's thinking was clear like water in spirits\l country don't have an angry heart on earth your heart was good

woman, if the things you take along are not good, make them good dead woman, if the food we make for you is not good, make it good (choose yourself what is good, we can't judge) if the household goods are not good, make them good if the bamboo sections are not even, cut them even (all the bamboo sections used for various purposes during a funeral) in the middle of heaven the sun and moon shine don't shine at the edge of heaven shine just at the good middle of heaven on the middle of earth walking with a stick don't walk with a stick at the edge of earth walk just at the good middle of earth roaming on earth, one small tiger don't roam at the edge of earth roam just at the good middle part of earth where the tiger first roamed upstream, let it watch there where (the sun and moon) first shone upstream, let them be bright there where you first walked with a stick upstream, let the walking be steady I the priest, the reciter
before, when you were alive, I didn't call you by name now when you have died I must call you by name while alive I didn't call your name now when you have died I must call your name

oh, dead woman +. (name of the dead said here) I have not finished all there is to do for you first doing the --------- purification for you
the ceremonies won't be finished yet then the --------- purification is made for you
the ceremonies won't be finished yet then a pig has been killed for you at the coffin making
the ceremonies won't be finished yet then liquor and a chicken was given to the coffin makers returning with the coffin
the ceremonies won't be finished yet then the --------- was all done
the dead woman's lick is all turned back towards us your luck staying behind your good luck given to your children thinking of your children, returning your good luck to them a sow for the --------- ceremony all is well finished
outside the red soil is dug even (the place for the buffalo sacrifice by her feet, a spindle for the woman to drag along

the ceremonies won't be finished yet I'm calling on all former priest (to help at the sacrifice)
the ceremonies won't be finished yet

I'm calling all former priest together
the ceremonies won't be finished yet then for your death the ----------- hen is given one hen for you to cover your hair the good nails on your body, I'm finishing reciting close by your female ancestor (dead Is mother) close to that ancestor (here name of dead Is mother is inserted) your second ancestor, close to your third ancestor (grandmother and great grandmother) a hen (given to all of you) I'm finishing reciting
the ceremonies won't be finished yet then dividing between good and bad death sweet potatoes (I'll put on the tray there is a difference between good and bad death nine piece of sugar cane on the tray there is a difference between good and bad death white cowries
there is a difference between good and bad death
nine shoots from the ----------- tree at the birth of a child ten ceremonies are made nine shoots from the ----------- tree all grown on earth
there is a difference between good and bad death at ----------- the bad deaths are taken out the ancestor ----------- let bad deaths stay (with good deaths) when a good death comes, don't let a bad death come when sweetness comes, don't let bitterness come when satisfaction comes, don't let hunger come when there is a good death in one village bad death is established in another village (don't let it come here) the owner of good death doesn't stay here on earth but has ascended to heaven and the sun
the ceremonies won't be finished yet then the -------- is done the ----------- ceremony with one boar giving you one rice grain from the paddy house + the big lot of rice we won't give you + only one person has died the big lot of people on earth haven't died + in the pen a lot of animals to be offered + the big lot of the animals we won't offer to you but I'll make the ----------- ceremony for you (and those animals you'll get) dead woman, let your good luck turn towards us let your good luck remain with us give your good luck to your children you dead woman, give your good luck to your children, I make the
----------- for you a boar at the ceremony for you the recitations are finished
the ceremonies won't be finished yet then your soul has got into the coffin at the head part of the coffin one rooster (is swung to and fro) that one rooster is given to the priest (who takes it home alive and later eats it) let it swing towards to foot part of the coffin, crowing

one hen to the priest swinging it towards the head of the coffin, cackling, that is done at the head part three cowries (in fact only one) letting pass on to the foot part to purify (the coffin) at the foot part three cowries let it pass to the head part to purify it the middle part of the coffin isn't clean; I'll clean it with a bowl of water the wood at the middle part doesn't fit, I'll clean between (the bottom and the lid) I'll clean the middle part of the coffin so the parts fit well together
the ceremonies won't be finished yet then I'll order you to go into the coffin
the ceremonies won't be finished yet then I'll instruct you to ascend (to your ancestors)
the ceremonies won't be finished yet then the coffin will be kept (by the ancestors)
the ceremonies won't be finished yet under the shadows on the porch then cutting the bamboo sections as for the (luck of) rice, the bamboo section is not even (have to make it even to ensure the good luck of rice) I'll cut it (as even as) for---------- who died and was in pain (name of the first person who died) as regards people, the section won't be cut across (to ensure the next generation) for---------- I cut off a section, for death and pain as regards animals, I don't make the bowl with tea, ginger and water for them for----------, for death and pain, I make the bowl in the hot season a stone in the soil might burst but I won't let the flat stone which I beat on for----------burst in the hot season the bamboo break but I won't let the bamboo section for----------for death and pain break in the hot season the zap bamboo bursts sounding like a crossbow shot I won't let the bamboo section burst like a crossbow shot a rope from the-------tree, planted by the ancestors the ---- tree planted by the creator is very strong (the rope is used to bind the bamboo section to the coffin outside of recitation time) I'll wet the bamboo section with ginger, water, and tea, like----------sha did 9 if it is dry it breaks easily)

the ceremonies won't be finished yet then the ceremony to ensure that the priest doesn't have to relieve himself (which reciting) a hen is given for the priest one hen for the priest not to relieve himself inside the house, one hen for the ceremony the ceremony, the hen is not for reciting outside (there is a strict division between ceremonies performed inside a house and outside this hen will stay at the star market
the ceremonies won't be finished yet there are the three nights of recitations
the ceremonies won't be finished yet calling on the former priests
the ceremonies won't be finished yet calling on all the former priests
the ceremonies won't be finished yet then the pigs killed each morning after the recitations
the ceremonies won't be finished yet then the priest rests in daytime between recitations the good luck of rice, the priest rests for you for the good luck of rice rests for you
the ceremonies won't be finished yet then the sacrificial buffalo is fed with a rooster three years old with nine peaks at its comb nine bunches of grass from upstream your eldest daughter-in-law feeds (the buffalo) first giving you, god animal, to eat binding you with a rope an outside buffalo coming to the pen let it be like a big chicken raised by ourselves below the house an outside girl climbing up to our house (new wife) climbing up as one of our household let the buffalo be like a big chicken raised by us below the house an outside girl coming up to our house I let her be like our own good children
the ceremonies won't be finished yet then the second night of recitation
the ceremonies won't be finished yet then pouring ginger, tea, and water into the bamboo section
the ceremonies won't be finished yet then buying the buffalo from a seller
the ceremonies won't be finished yet then leading the buffalo to you
the ceremonies won't be finished yet I'm calling on all deceased priest to come
the ceremonies won't be finished yet then killing a pig for you (after second night of recitation)
the ceremonies won't be finished yet first we want to prepare the grave (the grave is prepared before the buffalo sacrifice)
the ceremonies won't be finished with that
the ceremonies won't be finished yet then looking for a good place the grave
the ceremonies won't be finished with that then breaking a pole for you (to tie the buffalo)
the ceremonies won't be finished yet then digging the pole down for you
the ceremonies won't be finished yet then the recitation by the pole (to chase away evilness by the pole so that the buffalo will die properly, i.e. without screaming) a three years' old rooster with none peaks at its comb (is offered) I the priest, the reciter reciting by the pole for you when there is a good death, don't let evil death come when sweetness come, don't let bitterness come when there is satisfaction, don't let hunger come good death is in our village let evil death be at another place the owner of good death doesn't live on earth but in heaven he has gone up to heaven the owner of bad death doesn't have his abode on the none bends of earth he has returned up to heaven at ---------- the bad death is sorted away for you ---------- ma has raked away bad death for you

then the third night of recitations
the ceremonies won't be finished yet then reciting for you for the last night
the ceremonies won't be finished yet the buffalo has been bought from a seller
the ceremonies won't be finished yet
I the priest, the reciter
I have called on all former priest for you
the ceremonies won't be finished yet then purifying the coffin
the ceremonies won't be finished yet I've called on all former priest
the ceremonies won't be finished yet then the last pig is killed for you
the ceremonies won't be finished yet I've ordered the buffalo to be led to you
the ceremonies won't be finished yet then instructing to kill the buffalo with hands then ordering to lead the buffalo to you to your ---------- ancestors reaching gy ----------, then gy djm downslope at gy djm binding with the right hand reaching gy djm binding with the left hand after gy djm, the watcher coming up to where ----------, the watcher, lives coming toj where your maternal uncle live coming to where .............. , the watcher. Lives after the watcher, the child maker where the child lives coming up to where the conceiver lives conceiving, and then ejaculation calling on good children, they answer ÌỌỌ coming to .............. , creator of the three kinds (rice, people, animals)

16. ..............................................................

I've reached the house of .............., creator of the three kinds (to ask for strength to kill the buffalo) going out of my door I have to think about everything (to perform the ceremonies correctly) at his mother's door, the child covers his body the sun, moon (and the stars) three of them, must shine the priest must recite three sections (in fact many more) I though that the sun, moon and stars, the three of them, didn't shine the six-stars shining but not bright (like sun and moon) if the priest doesn't recite three sections there won't be many people at the bottom of heaven the sun and the moon (and stars), the three shine the priest recites three sections above rain is walking with a stick (following the traditions of our ancestors following in the foot steps of heaven, our teeth won't fall off following in the foot steps of earth, our nails won't fall off above walking with a stick is to be in a pair (ceremonies are not made by one person only) going downstream once, seeing somebody riding on a horse  ? going upstream once, seeing a white horse ? above in pairs, them strength  ? it is not that I don't have strength (but I need more) there is nothing that isn't done (all ceremonies are finished) the dragon in the river, beating on water for its strength (to wake it up and ask for its strength)  ? the crane in the river, beating for its strength the dragon doesn't have any pattern on its stomach it looks like a stick with red blood on no spurs its back but 12 stripes in a parallel pattern, my strength (I'll use the dragon's strength)

the yellow-patterned hill python, the dragon that shakes the earth, their strength will be mine the leopard and the tiger at the edge of earth, crossing over in long jumps, let their strengths be mine the hawk above zooming over the big earth, let its strength be mine the strength of the fire is great, fiercely burning the flames are forceful (fast like a) jumping deer, my strength the voice of thunder is great, a flying voice (reaching everywhere), my strength
the force of the wind upstream is strong, a flying force, my strength there is nothing that I have not finished ( all ceremonies are done ) the female sun walking with long legs, my strength the moon, curved and round, ---------, my strength ( name of the female moon ) reaching to the sun gate ( where the sun goes up ) ----------------- , my strength ( name of a man with great strength living by the sun gate ) reaching the gate where the moon goes down the moon going down, the sun shining ; my strength she wears a set of iron clothes ( the woman by the sun gate ) on her head a hat of iron wire on top of her head bamboo shaving, my strength there is nothing that I have not finished nothing that has not been done beating on the water where the dragon is beating on the water where the crane is downslope, a Shan diviner
there is nothing that I have not finished
nothing that has not been done the Shan diviner downstream, my strength upslope the .......... with tongue and teeth like beating on metal , my strength ( when they talk it sounds like beating on metal ) there is nothing that I have not finished
beating on the water where the crane is the strength of the village leader the strength of the priest reciting for spirits above strength, one's own household ( with ancestors ) going to my own house the priest's own genealogy my ancestors because of former generations I have come to tie going to my own clan if the village leader is not called upon, there won't be verdicts calling on the village leader there will be verdicts if the war leader is not called upon, there won't be many wars calling on the war leader, there will be many wars if the blacksmith is not called upon, there won't be any forging calling on the blacksmith, there will be a lot of forging if the priest is not called upon, there won't be any spirit incantations calling on the priest, there will be many spirit incantations.

17. ----------------------- if the priest is not called upon, there would be recitations for the spirits the priest has been called upon to recite for the spirits calling on deceased priest to come down from the --------- clan priest:

----------, -----------, ----------------------, -----------, ----------,
----------, -----------, ----------------------, -----------, ----------,
----------, -----------, ----------------------, -----------, ----------,
come here (the names of each clan, which has produced a priest, is recited, from the first of the clan down to the one who has become a priest, in this case the clan a priest):

stabbing the buffalo, don't stab at its head stabbing the buffalo, don't stab at its buttocks stabbing the buffalo, stab into side between two ribs with a spear from the clan a priest:

stabbing the buffalo, don't stab at its head
stabbing the buffalo, don't stab at its buttocks stabbing the buffalo, stab its side between two ribs with a spear (son of hy • • •), --------, --------, -------- (a priest) having recited for the buffalo, I'll look at its liver the meat of the buffalo is good, its liver is good when the buffalo's body is big, its liver is big (after this recitation the buffalo is stabbed)

18. -----------------------------------

then I'll recite for the dead animals you dead woman, you got old death and pain have come you died and were in pain, your breath has stopped your breath stopped and the priest were called upon the priest came, the reciter hasn't finished yet now reciting for the last time the ten spirit incantations are finished after ------------ came to life, the sparrow was there shooting, taking out big arrows hit it right in the middle of its back it falls down on a level place it dies lying on its stomach the owner (of the bird) doesn't know where it is (didn't see where it fell down) the priest doesn't know where it is after ------------ came to life, the dove was there placing an arrow for the dove shooting with a big arrow hit it right in the middle of its back

dies lying on its stomach the shooter doesn't know where it falls

19. ........................ you dead woman, you have got have got old, died, been in pain your breath has stopped the priest has come as your breathing has ended the priest has come I have not yet taken care of a resting place for you if it were not for taking care of you I wouldn't recite for the sake of caring I recite many times when the house spirit is no good, people die, get pain, fall when somebody dies, don't blame the spirits when a tree falls over, don't blame the wind going rotten like fruits, falling (= dying) like rain winnowing the good rice, the bad grains will be raked away good people are inside their houses good animals are tied with a long rope, I'll take care of you the buffalo's blood spurts out, its eyes get green (= lifeless) on the buffalo's mouth, rice pounded white nine pieces of the black fern stem (and the leaves are placed in front the buffalo's mouth just after it has been killed) on the fern three cowries the reciter takes care of you with my mouth and nose I take care, reciting for the last time after the house spirit, the owner of the fields if the owner of the fields is no good people die, get pain, and fall

reaching below the house(of the dead), where "--------" stays (the spirits owner of the house)

20. "--------------" coming to below the house where "----------" is if there is no death, evil wouldn't be disposed of because of death, I dispose of the evil of death if there is no pain, evil wouldn't be disposed of because of pain, I dispose of the evil of pain walking all around the "--------" river at cleared off places and steep places don't go to country around "--------" (now when you have died don't stay around here but go to the ancestors) the ruler doesn't leave his door but money comes to him the big water doesn't go out of its door but three streams flow into it the river we ourselves draw water from, the water source we drink from ourselves below the house the dog shit, stable like feathers on a wing (these feathers can't easily be pulled off) upslope the pig's excrements, like woven chairs (will always be there) passing "--------" walking around the Maesalong river, clear off places and steep places

coming to where lives

you have come out to where lives below your house (chasing the dead out of the house, she won't be allowed in again) you have come where the sun and the moon shine.
They don't shine where we are where you dead woman are, they shine on heaven (it is no good here, so don't come back) it is bright now but it goes towards evening (hurry on and go before darkness comes) where we are it is not dark where you dead woman are heaven is darkening where we sleep (it is good like) the yellow-patterned fish where you sleep there are bedbugs and dog fleas (no good sleeping place for you here any longer) where we stay there are ten big valuable mares where you stay ashes below the house used by children for rice when playing, of no value dead woman, do you stay at the top ridge in the house come down to the raft in the middle do you stay at the middle roof beam come down to the rack over the fireplace are you on the fire rack come down to the fireplace with ashes in nine heaps like termite hills are you by the fireplace with nine heaps of ashes like termite hills come to the middle of the house it is not enough to lie down, stand up it is not enough to raise up, stand on your feet when you are hungry, eat there is cold rice, two or three mouthfulls (we won't stream new rice for if you haven't got enough even though you haven't go enough, you will have to swallow your own saliva (to make do for food) two or three laddles of cold water if you haven't got enough even though you haven't drunk enough, you will have to swallow your own saliva walking, you have to lift your feet flying, you have to open your wings you though that you wouldn't have to lift your feet and walk I the reciter if you don’t go I’ll chase you like leading a dog you thought that you wouldn't have to open your wings to fly if you don’t go I’ll switch you like when riding a horse even though you don’t want to leaves, the time has come to separate from your clan and your children the time has come to separate from your clan and your children the morning has come to leave the day has come for separating the time has come for you and your family to separate from each other the time has come for you and your grandchildren to separate (your grandchildren good like) the Chinese (i.e. grandsons) the time has come for you to separate from your granddaughters, good like Chinese from your eldest son time to separate from your elder siblings living downslope time to separate from your younger siblings living upslope from your neighbours time to separate from your neighbours, to whom the same water flows (living so close that when it rains the same stream flow by) the neighbouring fields time to come to separate, weeding at the lower part of your own field, bundling the weeds and discarding them so they fall on your neighbours fields) a morning for separate the time has come to leave dead woman, are you inside the house get out the door thinking that we aren’t separated, but we are separated a little bit separated by the door it is not that we are separated by a door (only) it is a separated between spirits and humans, humans and spirits a separated (like) between heaven and sun, sun and moon are your by the doorway go down the stairs thinking that we are not separated, but we are separated a little bit separated by the stairs, by the steps of the stairs we are not separated by the stairs, not by the steps of the stairs it is a separated between spirits and humans, humans and spirits heaven and sun, sun and moon are you on the steps of the stairs go down to the woodpile below the house are you on the other side of the woodpile below the house thinking that we are not separated, but we are separated a little bit separated by a woodpile if we were separated by (what is) below the house if we were separated by a woodpile (only) your family in your house your grandsons (good like the) Chinese we would like to throw away the woodpile with our hands (to see you again) it is not that we are separated by a woodpile below the house it is a separated between spirits and humans, humans and spirits a separated between heaven and sun, sun and moon are you by the woodpile the house come out to the open place in front of the house we won’t give rice to the owner of the soil I give you a buffalo and a shroud I’m not talking to the animals behind the fence I talk to you who has been given a buffalo and a shroud thinking that we are not separated, but we are separated a little bit separated by the open place it is not that we are separated by the open place it is a separated between spirits and humans, humans and spirits heaven and sun, sun and moon dead woman, are you by the open place come to the village gate thinking that we are not separated, but we are separated a little bit separated by the village gate it is not that we are separated by the village gate it is a separated between spirits and humans, humans and spirits between heaven and sun, sun and moon are you by the village gate come to where the pigs are grazing, the red soil like being plowed thinking that we are not separated, but we are separated a little bit separated by the pigs grazing place it is not that we are separated by the pigs grazing place, not separated by the good holes it is a separation between spirits and humans, humans and spirits between heaven and sun, sun and moon are you by the pigs grazing place, by the red soil dug like being plowed separated by ten mountains come to the high mountain with big trees come to the country where ten river flow we are not separated by big trees on ten mountain if we were separated by big trees on ten mountain your family would fell the trees with axes if it were ten rivers flowing in another country in the rainy season with rivers overflowing, digging out steps in the river bank to climb on we would meet you riding on the Shan boat and rafts like on a horse it is not a separated by ten river flowing in another country it is a separated between spirits and, humans, humans and spirits between heaven and sun, sun and moon come to you grave by the far-stretching mountains when twelve boys mark the new fields, the jungle flows fly away screaming when thirty boys mark the good fields, the black monkeys with long arms move on screaming your small, shiny eyes will turn green will have to shine like fireflies, star in the underworlds your big teeth like a sharp knife will have to bite on stones and clay in the underworld your hair like the branches of the ---- tree in the underworld termites will eat it downslope a river flows the river, which didn't look like it would overflow, is overflowing, the water, which didn't look like it would turn red, is getting red (from the red soil in the rainy season) a river which can't be crossed the otter swimming at the bottom of the water hole will accompany you crossing the deep water hole coming to the sand (edge of river) at the bottom of the water hole there seem to be an otter and a snail if you can't climb the tree the monkey that climbs on to the high mountain will help you climb the tree passing the high mountain, you'll come to a level piece of land you look like a black monkey with long arms jumping (between trees) when the sun shines fiercely you must be careful about your body when it rain hard one's clothes mould it is not that you (have to) use your hand as a fan I give you a paper fan if your clothes mould because of heavy rain not wearing a hat made of metal and iron I give you a torn straw hat made from --- leaves reaching the crest of the road on spirits\textsuperscript{I} land walking to spirits; land with stones stable in the soil I give you red shoes to wear in the evening reaching \-------- with three crossroads reaching \-------- with three bends in the road I have not passed beyond \-------- (people still alive can\textsuperscript{I}t go further) I have not reached beyond \-------- staying below \-------- will tell you (where to go but won\textsuperscript{I}t follow you) staying below \-------- I\textsuperscript{I}l\textsuperscript{I} recite for you at \-------- there will be a selection between good and bad animals (the watch there will look at all the animals offered for you) if the animals are no good, don\textsuperscript{I}t let them pass beyond \-------- (the dead will be allowed to go on anyway but will then arrive to the ancestors empty handed) if the animals are good, don\textsuperscript{I}t let them stay below \-------- by \-------- there will be a selection between good and bad rice if the rice is bad don\textsuperscript{I}t let it pass beyond \-------- if the rice is clean don\textsuperscript{I}t let it stay below \-------- at \-------- you will be judged as to whether you are good or bad if you are bad (i.e. not purified, or have died a bad death) you won\textsuperscript{I}t be let to pass beyond \-------- if you are you won\textsuperscript{I}t be let to stay below \-------- at \-------- I will be checked whether your clothes are good or bad if your clothes are bad, the won\textsuperscript{I}t be to pass beyond \--------

----------,
if your clothes are good, they won\textsuperscript{I}t be let to stay below \-------- at \-------- there is an old, buffalo bull (prepared) to gore when you come if won\textsuperscript{I}t attack, when I come it will attack (I\textsuperscript{I}m not dead yet so it will stop me) at \-------- an old hunting dog barks when somebody arrives when you come it won\textsuperscript{I}t bark, when I come it will bark coming to where the caterpillar is, the \-------- when you come it won\textsuperscript{I}t be there, when I come it will be there (and hurt my feet)
a snake striking with its mouth like a pointed stick when you come it won\textsuperscript{I}t strike, when I come it will strike when you come the door will open with a sound like thunder when I come the door is closed like falling rain there are stairs when you come the stairs are down, like rain when I come the stairs are broken with a sound like thunder I won\textsuperscript{I}t come beyond \-------- I won\textsuperscript{I}t pass beyond \-------- breaking off the fern stem into pieces the time has come for me to leave, having done the rituals for sickness and death

I go back, longing for my family I go back (you will have to go on alone) the bees return home, their feet all yellow the wasps return home, thinking about making a hole in the ground to nest in the gopher return, thinking about finding its old hole the porcupine return, thinking of its dwelling place, all overgrown the samber deer return, thinking about roaming around the wide country until my youngest daughter get married, I won't come until my youngest son has brought a daughter-in-law, I won't come until the rooster lays eggs, I won't come until the buffalo bull gives birth, I won't come don't feel sorry because I can't come don't think about where the village leader is don't think about where the priest is (go your own way to the ancestors) you thought there wouldn't be a village leader over there, but they are many like bedbugs and dog fleas (all the deceased ones are there) you thought there wouldn't be a priest over there, but they are many like rat and bird droppings there is the village leader of heaven, the village leader of earth you'll reach a good water hole for drawing water to drink below the road there is a big river above the road there are fruits that make you forget (your family here, make you want to go on) when you have eaten the fruits that make you forget, you will forget having drunk from the river that makes you forget, forget us in the river you drink from there are ------- fishes nobody appears casting a net take your own (net) and cast it below the path, the river wash your feet three times washing your feet, you will look like the others (those who have died before all washed their feet in that river) wash your body three times your body will look like a clean fish wash your hands three times taking food with your hands they will be as clean as the others wash your hands three times your eyes will look like the others if your village is no good, an eagle comes screaming and nobody come out to shoot it with a crossbow, you take your own and shoot it if a samber deer drinks where your draw water to drink and nobody come out to set a trap you set your own trap with your own strong hands chase it with your own strong legs tread on it yourself reaching --------- there are three roads reaching ------- there are three bends in the road don't take the downslope road the downslope road is for terrible deaths don't take the upslope road the upslope road is for terrible deaths the middle one is the road to the ancestors the same with villages, reaching three of them the downslope village 1 for terrible deaths the upslope village is for terrible deaths the middle one is your ancestors' village the same with houses, reaching three of them the downslope house is for terrible deaths the upslope house is for terrible deaths the middle one is your ancestors' house meeting your grandmother meeting your grandfather if you meet the ------------ bird, which you thought you wouldn't meet, below the path if you see a sambar deer, which you thought you wouldn't see, above the path when meeting, don't say a word when seeing, don't say a word meeting your grandmother, meeting your grandfather when meeting your grandmother, give her a chicken when meeting your grandfather, give him a bottle with liquor give them nine rice balls and nine portions of gruel when meeting your grandmother and grandfather give her a chicken, him a bottle with liquor a hand of big bananas to eat give them a soft ----------- sugar cane to drink if they ask you: have you hurried here leading animals tell them: I am starting a herd with one animals I have a buffalo cow, tell them if they you: do you come freezing, do you have clothes to wear tell them: it is not that I have clothes to wear when freezing I have the equipment to make new clothes (so I will never be without) if they ask you: when you get hungry, do you have to eat tell them: it is not that I have food to eat when getting hungry (not food for one meal only) I have rice seeds to plant you have a buffalo cow and rice seeds to use in spirits' country next year let us here on earth have thousands of animals, rice and clothes (give us your good luck)

one buffalo cow
if your pillow on your sleeping place is not comfortable this buffalo is for making it comfortable for you if your sitting place is not stable like a termite hill this buffalo is for making it stable for you the buffalo will make your home steady the buffalo will make your house long lasting the buffalo will close the door (I the priest will let the buffalo close the door for you)
