Ride for Freedom!

Across America by Horse For Akha Human Rights

November 2007

Vol.1 No. 11

Across the US by Horseback
To Support Akha Human Rights

The Akha people of SE Asia have some of the most distressful human rights conditions in Asia. There are also Akha refugees living in Salem, Portland, Sacramento and more to be located.

In order to promote recognition of Akha human rights and educate the public the Akha Heritage Foundation is conducting a "Ride for Freedom" across the US by horseback.

Some 4500 miles, the ride will take Matthew McDaniel and Michu Uaiyue into the southwest and then across the US, stopping at major cities along the way and ending up at the Thai Mission to the UN in New York.

You can be part of this ongoing effort to assist the Akha people. Visit www.akha.org for updates and get involved locally. Email: akhalife@gmail.com
